

CONTENTS

ONE / Capitalism, Cartography, and Culture / 1

Early Modern Capitalism and Cartography / 1

Theorizing Capitalist Cartography / 4

Chapter Outlines / 18

TWO / Amsterdam Society and Maps / 21

The Market for Maps / 23

Organization of Government and the WIC / 27

Pictorial and Intellectual Foundations / 30

Social Organization and Hierarchy / 39

Conclusion / 41

THREE / Capitalism and Cartography in Amsterdam / 43

The Virtuous Merchant and the Republic / 47

Visscher and the Amsterdam Map Tradition / 49

The Beemster / 55

The Grid, Private Property, and the Commonwealth / 67

FOUR / Profit and Possession in Brazil / 73

Visscher's WIC-Authorized Map of Pernambuco / 82

Johan Maurits and the Development of Recife and Mauritsstad / 85

Blaeu and Barlaeus's Representation of Brazil / 88

Possession According to Grotius / 93

Natural Rights, Sugar, and Human Exploitation / 95

Trying Times: 1648 / 97

Conclusion / 99

FIVE / Marketing New Amsterdam / 100

Picturing New Amsterdam / 108

WIC Colonial Policies 1629–49:

Possession, Boundaries, Patroons, and Natives / 112

The 1649 Affair / 122

New Amsterdam Renewed / 126

Conclusion / 128

SIX / Capitalism and Cartography Revisited / 129

Acknowledgments / 135

Notes / 137

Bibliography / 161

Index / 181