

Contents

Introduction.....	7
Piotr Zawilski
The Łódź War Losses Assessment Committees – an undervalued source for research into the Great War in the Łódź region.....	9
Tomasz Walkiewicz
Polish military formations of the First World War in documents preserved at the State Archive in Łódź.....	19
Kamila Pawełczyk-Dura
The influence of World War I on the activity of the Russian military and naval clergy.....	47
Ionela Zaharia
Christian religious experiences within the Austro-Hungarian Army during the Great War.....	63
Agata G. Handley
Strange Meetings: The war poetry of Tony Harrison and Wilfred Owen.....	75
Anna Caban
Archive traces of the drama of war. Sources for investigation into the daily life of the inhabitants of cities in the Opole District in the archival fonds of the State Archive in Opole.....	89
Marek Szczepaniak and Grażyna Tyrchan
World war from a local perspective. School chronicles from the border areas of the Province of Posen (Prowincja Poznańska) as a source of information.....	115
Tomasz Matuszak
The organization and the operations of the War Alert Women's League.....	131
Sławomir Jan Maksymowicz
East Prussia as the only province of the German Empire occupied during the Great War. Wartime histories of East Prussia.....	151

Magdalena Żakowska Ivan and the aria for the dying world. The image of Russia in the propaganda of the central powers during the Great War.....	173
Frank M. Schuster Between paralysis, crisis and renewal: The effects of the war on the polyhedral industrial city of Łódź (1914–1918).....	195
Marcos Silber Jews, Poles, and Germans in Łódź during the Great War: Hegemony via acknowledgment and/or negation of multiple cultures .....	215
Krzysztof Paweł Woźniak Betrayed twice. The German community in the Kingdom of Poland during the Great War .....	245
Andrea Brait War museums at the former frontline between Austria-Hungary and Italy during World War I.....	265
Hassan A. Jamsheer The Middle East and the centenary of the Great War .....	281
Author Biographies .....	295