

Contents

Acknowledgements 7

Martin Pütz & Neele Mundt

Introduction: Vanishing Languages in Context 9

Section I: Language planning, linguistic inequalities and human rights

Modupe M. Alimi

Micro language planning, minority languages and advocacy groups
in Botswana 21

Dörte Borchers

Linguistic rights and mother tongue education in post-civil war Nepal 37

Hilda Kebeya-Omondi & Fridah Kanana Erastus

Devolution of governance and linguistic (in) equalities in Kenya 51

Section II: Language attitudes, discourse and ideology

Anna Ghimenton & Giovanni Depau

Ideologies and expressed attitudes in Internet: Comparing ethnic identities in two regional communities (Veneto and Sardinia) 73

Neele Mundt

Endangering indigenous languages: An empirical study of language attitudes and identity in post-colonial Cameroon 103

Britta Schneider

Language ideologies beyond ethnicity – Observing popular music styles and their potential relevance for understanding processes of endangerment 133

Eeva Sippola

Rap and resistance in Chabacano 157

Danuta Stanulewicz & Małgorzata Smentek

The Kashubian language at school: Facts and attitudes 177

Section III: Case studies of endangered minority languages

Heiko F. Marten & Sanita Lazdiņa

Latgalian in Latvia: How a minority language community gains voice during societal negotiations about the status of two major languages..... 195

Maria Rieder

The case of Cant: The Irish Travellers and their linguistic repertoire in the context of a changing cultural identity 223

Esther Senayon

Non-native speaker mother, personal family efforts and language maintenance: The case of Ogu (Nigeria) in my family 255

Gideon Sunday Omachonu

Language endangerment in Northern Nigeria: The case of Igala 279

Eileen Lee

Linguistic diversity and endangerment in Malaysia: The case of Papia Kristang..... 295

Subject Index 319

Language Index..... 321