

CONTENTS

Introduction: paths into the social world Pietro Salis and Guido Seddone	p. 3
SECTION I ESSAYS
Pietro Salis Conceptions of Original Intentionality (and Social Ontology)	p. 7
Guido Seddone Intentions and Self-Consciousness: Revision of a Neutral Conception of Intentionality	p. 16
Raffaella Giovagnoli Communicative Life-world, We-Intentionality and Rituals	p. 22
Guido Seddone Nature and Origins of We-Intentionality	p. 33
Guido Seddone Emergence of We-Intentionality: Commitment or Belonging?	p. 41
Guglielmo Feis For Whom (Searlean) Social Ontology Is (A Social) Ontology? Some Alternative Facts on Searlean Social Ontology?	p. 46
Olimpia G. Loddo Is there Background-Power?	p. 54
Guido Seddone Geist, Alienation and Background: How Humans Find Their Rules	p. 63
Guido Seddone At the Origins of the Institutional Reality: Desire and Recognition in Hegel's Phenomenology of Spirit	p. 68
SECTION II CRITICAL NOTES
Elisa Cacopardi Towards Collective Personhood and Agency: Collective Persons as Freestanding Agents	p. 75
Omni Hirvonen Group Personhood in the Contemporary Social Ontology	p. 80
Pietro Salis Belongingness and Institutions. Some Remarks on Seddone's Proposal	p. 84
Guido Seddone Hegel's Speculative Ontology and Global Trade	p. 87