

Contents

1. Exploring the Entanglements of Chocolate and Blackness .....	9
1.1 Why Chocolate?.....	14
1.2 Chocolate as a Myth and as a Floating Signifier.....	18
2. Producing a Taste for Chocolate.....	25
2.1 “The sweet may be obtained without the bitter”: Cocoa and Colonialism .....	30
2.2 Critical Accounts of Neoslavery .....	38
3. Advertising Chocolate.....	45
3.1 The Emergence of Mass Advertising.....	50
3.2 From Scientific to Commodity Racism .....	54
3.3 Exoticism, Primitivism, and Blackness .....	59
3.4 The Lactification of Chocolate; or, how Chocolate Became White .....	70
3.5 “Robust Men like Baker’s Cocoa”: White Men’s Appetite for Chocolate .....	75
4. Chocolate and Desire.....	85
4.1 The Sexualization of Chocolate .....	86
4.2 Chocolate as an “Afrodiziac”? .....	93
4.3 Desire and Black Popular Culture .....	105

5. The Racialization of Chocolate.....	113
5.1 Chocolate Colorism .....	115
5.2 “That Chocolate Colored Gal of Mine”: Sheet Music and Blackface .....	123
5.3 Resignifying Chocolate on Broadway .....	134
5.4 Chocolate Kiddies in “Kaiserland” .....	139
5.5 “Chocolate City, are you with me out there?” .....	146
6. Conclusion .....	155
Acknowledgments.....	158
List of Illustrations.....	160
Archives and Collections .....	162
Bibliography.....	164
Index .....	181