

CONTENTS

- 1 Introduction: Telling Environmental Histories 1
Katie Holmes and Heather Goodall

Part I Rivers

- 2 Rivers, Memory and Migrancy: Everyday Place-Making in Changing Environments 31
Heather Goodall
- 3 “Dancing to the Billabong’s Tune”: Oral History
in the Environmental Histories of Murray–Darling
Basin Rivers 51
Jodi Frawley
- 4 River of Many Voices: Oral and Environmental Histories of the Severn 81
Marianna Dudley

Part II De/Industrialisation

- 5 Industrial Remains: Community Narratives of Mashapaug Pond in Providence, Rhode Island 109
Anne M. Valk
- 6 Building a Safe Space for Unsafe Memories: The Remember Bhopal Museum 133
Rama Lakshmi and Shalini Sharma
- 7 Stories of Life, Work and Nature Before and After the Clean-up of North-East England's River Tyne, 1940–2015 153
Leona Skelton
- 8 The Deindustrialisation of Our Senses: Residual and Dominant Soundscapes in Montreal's Point Saint-Charles District 179
Piyusha Chatterjee and Steven High

Part III Living with Environmental Change

- 9 "Another Weed Will Come Along": Attitudes to Weeds, Land and Community in the Victorian Mallee 213
Karen Twigg
- 10 Famine and Elephants: Remembering Place-Making Along Travancore's Forest Fringe 241
Meera Anna Oommen
- 11 Hearing the Legacy in the Forecast: Living with Stories of the Australian Climate 267
Deb Anderson

12 “It’s the Devil You Know”: Environmental Stories from the Victorian Mallee	295
Katie Holmes
Index	319