

Interlacing Words and Things
BRIDGING THE NATURE-CULTURE OPPOSITION
IN GARDENS AND LANDSCAPE

STEPHEN BANN
Editor

Contents

Introduction	1
STEPHEN BANN
1 What Happens to Words in Gardens and Landscapes	13
YVES ABRIOUX
2 “Capturing the Scene”: Seeing and Writing the Landscape	27
MALCOLM ANDREWS
3 “The Horizon of Holland”: A Poetic Prelude to Ian Hamilton Finlay’s Gardens	37
STEPHEN BANN
4 Virgil’s Georgics and the Poetic Landscape of the English Civil War	51
HENRY POWER
5 History, Neo-Confucian Identity, and Landscape at the Yuelu Academy	65
XIN WU
6 A Place for the Gods: Gardens of Buddhist and Hindu India	81
FREDERICK M. ASHER
7 The Garden City of Shah Tahmasb Reflected in the Words of His Poet and Painter	95
MAHVASH ALEMI

8	The Wilderness-Garden Paradigm in Sixteenth-Century New Spain: Paradise between Metaphor and Lived Reality	115
	JEANETTE FAVROT PETERSON
9	Garden as Threshold in Eighteenth-Century New Spain: The Puebla Cathedral's Hortus Conclusus	135
	PATRICIA DÍAZ CAYEROS
	Contributors	157
	Index	161