

ISLAM AND THE ITALIAN RENAISSANCE

EDITED BY

CHARLES BURNETT and ANNA CONTADINI

THE WARBURG INSTITUTE
School of Advanced Study, University of London
LONDON 1999

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION	vii
ANNA CONTADINI: Artistic Contacts: Current Scholarship and Future Tasks	1
MARIA VITTORIA FONTANA: Byzantine Mediation of Epigraphic Characters of Islamic Derivation in the Wall Paintings of Some Churches in Southern Italy	61
HUGH TAIT: Venice: Heir to the Glassmakers of Islam or of Byzantium?	77
GIOVANNI CURATOLA: Ebrei, turchi e veneziani a Rialto. Qualche documento sui tessili	105
RACHEL WARD: The ‘Baptistère de Saint Louis’ – A Mamluk Basin made for Export to Europe	113
J. M. ROGERS: Ornament Prints, Patterns and Designs East and West	133
EBBA KOCH: The Just Hunter: Renaissance Calendar Illustrations and the Representation of the Mughal Hunt	167
CHARLES BURNETT: The Second Revelation of Arabic Philosophy and Science: 1492–1562	185
ANGELO MICHELE PIEMONTESE: Le iscrizioni arabe nella Poliphili Hypnerotomachia	199
PETER DILG: The Liber aggregatus in medicinis simplicibus of Pseudo-Serapion: An Influential Work of Medical Arabism	221