

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
List of Contributors	viii
Acknowledgement	x
1 Introduction and overview	1
ÇINLA AKDERE, CHRISTINE BARON AND BRUNA INGRAO
PART I
Passions and interest: A comparative study of economic texts and literary masterpieces	17
2 Narratives of passions and finance in the 19th century	19
BRUNA INGRAO
3 The passions and the interests: The Sentimental Education of Gustave Flaubert	45
ALFONSO SANCHEZ
4 Literature and political economy: Saint-Simon and Jean-Baptiste Say's writings	64
GILLES JACOUD
5 Which economic agent does Robinson Crusoe represent?	79
CLAIRE PIGNOL
6 Political economy and utilitarianism in Dickens' Hard Times	96
NATHALIE SIGOT AND ÇINLA AKDERE

PART II

Economic ideas and metaphors in literature:

An interdisciplinary approach

109

7 Concordances and dissidences between economy and literature

111

JEAN-JOSEPH GOUX

8 Economics and monetary imagination in André Gide's

The Counterfeiters

121

ÇINLA AKDERE AND CHRISTINE BARON

9 "I always wanted to have earned my first dollar but I never had": Gertrude Stein and money

132

LAURA E.B. KEY

10 Georges Perec's Les Choses as the privileged domain of contemporary hunter-gatherers

149

EYÜP ÖZVEREN

PART III

Facing change: Reflections of economic development and crises in historical and literary texts

165

11 Transforming economic and social relations: Modern economy in the novels of Uşaklıgil

167

REYHAN TUTUMLU SERDAR AND ALI SERDAR

12 Mechanization experience in agriculture in Turkey: The Pomegranate on the Knoll

182

SELİN SEÇİL AKIN AND İŞİL ŞİRİN SELÇUK

13 An intertextual analysis of the village novels by Village Institute graduates: Socio-economic scenes of the Turkish village between 1950 and 1980

197

ESRA ELIF NARTOK

14 Theatre in crisis, theatre of crisis: Economics and contemporary dramatic writing and shows

213

MARTIAL POIRSON

15 Restructuring the attention economy: Literary interpretation as an antidote to mass media distraction

227

YVES CITTON

Index of Names

243

Index of Economics and Literary Terms

246