Acknowledgements

I would like to thank Dr. Karen Stears for organising the conference, Dr. Glenys Davies for proof-reading the penultimate draft of this text, and John Hedges, the publisher, for his encouragement in making it camera-ready. I also thank all the contributors for bearing with me throughout the long and complex process of bringing the volume together. On a more personal note, I thank Anna for coming through on the illustrations when it mattered, and generally the Clelands and MacDonalds, for their support and inspiration, and for helping me keep it together.
