

Table of Contents

Preface and Acknowledgements	vii
List of Abbreviations	ix
Introduction: Transforming Miracles in Medieval Hagiography Antonina Harbus and Karin Olsen	1
The Miracle: A Religious-Historical and Christian Perspective Arnold Angenendt	13
Configurations of Miracle: From Roman to Merovingian Gaul Giselle de Nie	35
Encounters between Monks and Demons in Latin Texts of Late Antiquity and the Early Middle Ages Albrecht Diem	51
Misgivings about Miracles in Carolingian Hagiography from Utrecht Wolfert S. van Egmond	69
Translation and the Miraculous in the Legend of St Eulalia Kate Greenspan	81
Roman Martyrs and their Miracles in Anglo-Saxon England Michael Lapidge	95
The furtum sacrum of St Wihtburga and the Incorruption Story of St Etheldreda Bea Blokhuis	121
Selves, Souls, and Bodies: The Assumption of the Virgin in Anglo-Saxon England Jennifer Neville	141

The Presentation of Native Saints and their Miracles in the Old English Translation of Bede's Historia Ecclesiastica Antonina Harbus	155
Miracles in the Saga of Jón of Hólar Margaret Cormack	175
Miracle as Magic: Hagiographic Sources for a Group of Norse Mythographic Motifs? Philip Shaw	189
List of Contributors	205
Index	207