

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	11
INTRODUCTION	EDUCATION & LITERACY	13
	From c.1300 to c.1600	14
	Material school culture	17
	Literacy	19
	School life	20
	Structure of this book	20
CHAPTER 1	MEDIEVAL SCHOOLS	21
1.1	The school system in the Netherlands	21
	Historiography	21
	Learning the basics	22
	Girls in primary school	22
	Grammar schools	23
	Schooldays	25
	Teachers' agendas	26
	Other school types	27
	Girls in secondary school	28
1.2	A European perspective	29
	Germany	29
	France	29
	Italy	31
	Great Britain	31
	Scandinavia	32
1.3	School in medieval Dutch literature	33
	School in manuals	33
	Mirrors for children	35
	Educating the special	35
	Schoolchildren in miracle books	37
	Instructing the masters	38
1.4	School in Latin school texts	40
1.5	Archaeological sources	42
	Medieval urban archaeology	43
	Limitations	45
1.6	Iconographical sources	45
	School scenes identified	47
	Limitations	51

CHAPTER 2	THE MATERIAL CULTURE OF EDUCATION	53
2.1	Learning the alphabet	53
	Hornbook	53
	ABC-book	54
2.2	Reading	55
	Book	55
	Lectern	56
2.3	Writing	57
	Writing tablet	57
	Stylus	60
	Slate	62
	Slate pencil	64
	Parchment & paper	64
	Quill	64
	Penknife	66
	Ink pen	67
	Inkwell	68
	Sand disperser	71
	Graphite holder	71
2.4	Arithmetic	72
	Counting board	72
	Casting counter	73
	Arithmetic book	74
	Instruments	75
2.5	Carrying	76
	Wax tablet case	76
	Writing case	77
	School basket	80
	Schoolbag	80
	School sack	81
2.6	Punishment	82
	Rod	82
	'Plak' (paddle)	82
2.7	Production and sale of school equipment	85
CHAPTER 3	SCHOOL LIFE EXCAVATED	89
3.1	Groningen: What pupils left behind	89
3.2	Leiden: Records, finds, and a building	92
3.3	Gorinchem: A school around 1600	97
3.4	Zwolle: A boarding house	99
3.5	A European perspective	100
	Liège: The oldest	100
	Lübeck: The most extensive	102
3.6	Some other schools and houses	103
3.7	Reformation schools	105
	Coventry: A monastery reused	105
	Alpirsbach: An evangelic school	107
	School clothes	110

	Reading school images	115
4.1	School parodies	116
	Ape schools	116
	Intellectual animals	120
	Wolves will be wolves	122
	Printed parodies	123
4.2	Teachers and pupils	127
	Teacher portraits	127
	Aristotle instructing Alexander	130
	Solomon's wise lessons	134
	Classical punishment	136
	Teachers killed with school equipment	138
	Advertising education	140
	Schools in print	141
	The teacher is a fool	143
4.3	Educating Holy children	145
	The school in the temple	145
	Christ at school	150
	Writing Christ Child	152
	Teaching the Holy Family	154
	Small saints taken to school	157
	Saints in class	161
	Saints and their classmates	162
4.4	Learning in egodocuments	167
	Autobiographies of schooldays	167
	The Schwarz costume books	167
	At play behind the school	175

CHAPTER 5 THE RIGHT TIME FOR EDUCATION

5.1	School as a phase in life	181
	School on misericords	181
	The ages of man	183
	School in February	187
	Venice: First reading, then counting	191
	Padova and Modena: The age of instruction	193
5.2	The learned children of Mercury	199
	A book full of wisdom	199
	A painted encyclopaedia	202
	Planets and their children	204
	The 'block books'	207
	Worldly knowledge	210

CHAPTER 6	GRAMMAR AS A TEACHER	213
6.1	Grammar and the other Arts	213
6.2	The good and the bad pupil	217
6.3	French cathedrals: Grammar in a stone book	219
6.4	Italian decorative programmes: Government resting on Grammar	222
6.5	Foligno: Arts, planets, and the ages of life	228
6.6	Secular arts, sacred arts	232
	Grammar in applied art	239
	Rimini: A profane church	240
6.7	Urbino: Federico da Montefeltro showing the arts	241
6.8	Grammar in manuscripts	246
	Group portraits of the arts	246
	A male Grammar	249
	Grammar's alphabet	251
	Arts of Europe	254
6.9	A realistic Grammar?	256
CHAPTER 7	DAILY LIFE AT SCHOOL	261
	School objects	261
7.1	School buildings	261
	Architecture	261
	A European perspective	263
	Locations	263
	Exterior	264
	Floor and roof	265
	Lighting and heating	266
	Furniture	266
	Wall decoration	267
	Boarding facilities and hygiene	268
7.2	Pupils	270
	Dress	270
	School equipment	273
	Behaviour	277
7.3	Teachers	278
	Dress	278
	Attributes	278
	Behaviour towards pupils	280
7.4	Schooldays	280
	Festivities	282
	Boy bishop	284
	Processions	286
	Play	287
7.5	Social status and gender	289
	Bruges: A school for orphans	289
	Siena: The education of foundlings	290
	Educating the poorest	292
	Educating the richest	293
	Teaching girls	296
	A literate society	301

CONCLUSION	EDUCATION AND LITERACY	303
	From c.1300 to c.1600	303
	Material school culture	304
	Literacy	307
	School life	308
	BIBLIOGRAPHY	311
	INDEX	321