
Contents

Contributors	xi
Introduction	3
I An Ethics for Ordinary Life and Vulnerable Persons
1 Virtue and the Skills of Ordinary Life	23
Marcia Homiak
2 The Household as Repair Shop	43
Elizabeth V. Spelman
3 Taking Care: Care as Practice and Value	59
Virginia Held
4 The Future of Feminist Liberalism	72
Martha C. Nussbaum
II What We Ought to Do for Each Other
5 The Scope of Moral Requirement	91
Barbara Herman
6 The Moral of Moral Luck	113
Susan Wolf
7 Common Decency	128
Cheshire Calhoun
III The Normative Importance of a Shared Social World
8 Resentment and Assurance	145
Margaret Urban Walker

x CONTENTS

- 9 Genocide and Social Death 161
Claudia Card
- 10 Demoralization, Trust, and the Virtues 176
Annette C. Baier
- IV Achieving Adequate Moral Understandings
- 11 Kant on Arrogance and Self-Respect 191
Robin S. Dillon
- 12 Diversity, Trust, and Moral Understanding 217
Marilyn Friedman
- 13 Globalizing Feminist Ethics 233
Alison M. Jaggar
- 14 The Idea of Moral Progress 256
Michele Moody-Adams
- V The Dramatic and Narrative Form of Deliberation and Agency
- 15 The Improvisatory Dramas of Deliberation 275
Amelie Oksenberg Rorty
- 16 Narrative and Moral Life 288
Diana Tietjens Meyers
- VI Emotions, Reason, and Unreason
- 17 Self-Constitution in the Ethics of Plato and Kant 309
Christine M. Korsgaard
- 18 Emotional Rationality as Practical Rationality 333
Karen Jones
- 19 Killing in the Heat of Passion 353
Marcia Baron
- Index 379