

Poetry in the British Isles

NON-METROPOLITAN PERSPECTIVES

Edited by

Hans-Werner Ludwig and Lothar Fietz

CARDIFF
UNIVERSITY OF WALES PRESS
1995

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
List of contributors	x
'My country will not yield you any sanctuary': A polemic by way of preface CHRISTOPHER HARVIE	1
I CENTRE AND PERIPHERY IN HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE
1 Topos/Locus/Place: The rhetoric and politics of place, 1500–1800 LOTHAR FIETZ	15
2 At the margins: Outsider-figures in nineteenth-century poetry ROBIN YOUNG	31
3 Province and metropolis, centre and periphery: Some critical terms re-examined HANS-WERNER LUDWIG	47
II THE PLACES OF CONTEMPORARY POETRY
4 'The centre cannot hold': Place in modern English poetry JEREMY HOOKER	73

5	Prints of Wales: Contemporary Welsh poetry in English M. WYNN THOMAS	97
6	The multi-screen cinema: Poetry in Welsh 1950–1990 GARETH ALBAN DAVIES	115
7	Beyond the Caledonian Antisyzygy: Contemporary Scottish poetry in between cultures URSULA KIMPEL	135
8	Poetry in Scottish Gaelic, 1945–1992 DERICK S. THOMSON	157
9	The place of writing and the writing of place in twentieth-century Irish poetry in English ROBERT F. GARRATT	173
10	And not just for Pharaoh's daughter: Irish-language poetry today SABINA SHARKEY	193
III FIVE POETS
11	Charles Tomlinson: An Eden in Arden RAINER LENGELER	211
12	Tony Harrison and the poetry of Leeds RAYMOND HARGREAVES	231
13	Waldo Williams – In Two Fields NED THOMAS	253
14	The poetry of Gillian Clarke K. E. SMITH	267
15	'The Binding Breath': Island and community in the poetry of George Mackay Brown DAVID ANNWN	283
	Index	311