

CONTENTS

| | |
|--|-----|
| Foreword | i |
| Introduction | 1 |
| I. The Geographical Space of Yoknapatawpha | |
| 1. Topography: Yoknapatawpha County - A Sketch Map of Reality? | 13 |
| 1.1. Panorama and Boundaries of Faulkner's Fictional Space | 22 |
| 1.2. The Geographical Location | 35 |
| 2. The Meaning of Statistics: Rurality and the "Black Shadow" | 38 |
| 3. Jefferson and Oxford: The Apocryphal and the Actual | 42 |
| 3.1. The County Seat: The Geographical and Social Focus | 43 |
| 3.2. "Each in Its Ordered Place": The Spatial Structure of Jefferson | 48 |
| 3.3. The Square | 50 |
| 3.3.1. The Courthouse | 54 |
| 3.3.2. The Confederate Monument | 60 |
| 3.3.3. The Jail | 65 |
| 3.4. Public Spaces | 72 |
| 3.4.1. Centers of Communication | 73 |
| 3.4.2. Places of Economy and Trade | 78 |
| 3.4.3. Spaces of Law, Order, and Institutionalized Religion | 86 |
| 3.4.4. Spaces of Culture and Education | 91 |
| 3.4.5. Social Spaces of the Black Community | 93 |
| 3.5. Private Spaces | 98 |
| 3.5.1. Aristocratic Spaces of Private Life | 100 |
| 3.5.2. The "Dark House" | 113 |

| | | |
|--------|--|-----|
| 4. | The County: Rural Space in Fact and Fiction | 122 |
| 4.1. | The North-West-Sector | 125 |
| 4.1.1. | The Sartoris Plantation | 127 |
| 4.1.2. | Sutpen's Hundred | 133 |
| 4.1.3. | The Big Bottom | 140 |
| 4.1.4. | Wyott's Crossing | 147 |
| 4.2. | The North-East-Sector | 150 |
| 4.2.1. | The McCaslin-Edmonds Plantation | 150 |
| 4.2.2. | Beat Four | 154 |
| 4.2.3. | The MacCallum Farm and the World of the Hill Folk | 161 |
| 4.3. | The South-East-Sector | 166 |
| 4.3.1. | The Old Frenchman's Place | 167 |
| 4.3.2. | Frenchman's Bend | 170 |
| 4.4. | The South-West-Sector | 178 |

II. The Space of History

| | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 1. | The Panorama of History | 180 |
| 2. | Settlement and Indian Removal: The Land and the Curse | 188 |
| 3. | Foundation of Town and County: The Establishment of an Ordered Community | 201 |
| 4. | From Frontier to Civil War: A Social Edifice and Its Pillars | 210 |
| 5. | The Civil War: The Myth of the Lost Cause | 223 |
| 6. | Reconstruction: Values Old and New | 236 |
| 7. | The New South: Change and Continuity | 248 |
| 8. | History, Space, and Man: "The Past Is Never Dead" | 268 |

| | |
|-------------------|-----|
| Conclusion | 278 |
|-------------------|-----|

| | |
|----------------------|-----|
| Abbreviations | 284 |
|----------------------|-----|

| | |
|---------------------|-----|
| Bibliography | 285 |
|---------------------|-----|