

Bernhard Klein and Jürgen Kramer (eds.)

Common Ground?

Crossovers
between Cultural Studies and Postcolonial Studies

 Wissenschaftlicher Verlag Trier

CONTENTS

	List of Illustrations	vii
1	Introduction Bernhard Klein and Jürgen Kramer	1
PART I: PROBLEMS AND POSITIONS
2	The Marxist Legacy in Cultural and Postcolonial Studies. A Return of the Repressed? Benita Parry	9
3	Through the Mirror Stage. And What the Subjects of Cultural / Post-Colonial Studies Found There Doris Feldmann	21
4	Redressing the Tribunes. Authority and Amnesia in Postcolonial and Cultural Studies Kenneth Parker	33
5	Concepts, Theories, Questions. Six Short Critical Interventions compiled by Jana Gohrisch
	Globalization as a Challenge to Cultural Studies and the Study of the New Literatures in English Frank Schulze-Engler	49
	Hybridity and Syncretism as Theoretical Concepts of the 21st Century. Describing Cultural Productivity Cecile Sandten	55
	The Limits of Defining Power in Terms of Exclusion Merle Tönnies	61
	Cultural Studies versus Postcolonial Studies. How to Approach Recent Black and Asian British Cultural Productions Ingrid von Rosenberg	65
	Theory and Social Practice in Postcolonial and Cultural Studies Jana Gohrisch	71
	Fade-outs. Liberalism, Globalization, and the Role of Cultural Studies Wolfgang Riedel	75

PART II: CASE STUDIES

6	Monkey Business. Postcolonial and Popular Figurations of the Ape in Theory, Literature and Film	81
	Julika Griem
7	The Sea Is Culture. Some Systematical Observations and a Glimpse of a Project in Progress	101
	Jürgen Kramer
8	Of Bogs and Oceans. Alternative Histories in the Poetry of Seamus Heaney and Derek Walcott	113
	Tobias Döring and Bernhard Klein
9	On the Pain of Not Being English	137
	Ina Habermann
10	Postcolonial Encounters in British Studies. The Example of Asian Political Participation	153
	Sebastian Berg
	Notes on Contributors	167