

TONI MORRISON'S

Song of Solomon

A C A S E B O O K

Edited by Jan Furman

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

2003

Contents

Introduction 3

JAN FURMAN

People Who Could Fly 21

JULIUS LESTER

Part I Quest for Identity

The Quest for and Discovery of Identity in Toni Morrison's Song of Solomon 27

VALERIE SMITH

The South in Toni Morrison's Song of Solomon:
Initiation, Healing, and Home 43

CATHERINE CARR LEE

Part II Myth and Folklore

- “Unruly and Let Loose”:
Myth, Ideology, and Gender in Song of Solomon 67
MICHAEL AWKWARD

- Song of Solomon*: Rejecting Rank’s Monomyth
and Feminism 95
GERRY BRENNER

Part III Narrative Influence

- Doe Hunting and Masculinity:
Song of Solomon and Go Down, Moses 113
JOHN N. DUVALL

- Civilizations Underneath: African Heritage as Cultural Discourse in Toni Morrison’s Song of Solomon 137
GAY WILENTZ

- Toni Morrison’s Song of Solomon: A Blues Song 165
JOYCE M. WEGS

- Names to Bear Witness: The Theme and Tradition of Naming in Toni Morrison’s Song of Solomon 185
LUCINDA H. MACKETHAN

Part IV Historical Perspectives

- Dead Teachers: Rituals of Manhood and Rituals of Reading in Song of Solomon 201
LINDA KRUMHOLZ

Part V An Interview

Toni Morrison: The Art of Fiction 233

ELISSA SCHAPPELL

Chronology: African-American History, 1865–1977 267

Selected Bibliography 273