

Alber-Reiner Glaap & Marc Maufort (Eds.)

Keying in to Postcolonial Cultures:

Contemporary Stage Plays in English

 Wissenschaftlicher Verlag Trier

Contents

Albert-Reiner Glaap & Marc Maufort
Introduction: Keying in to Postcolonial Cultures	1
David O'Donnel
"Whakarongo ki te tangi hotuhotu mokemoke e: Listen to the one who cries to be heard." Recent Theatre in Aotearoa/New Zealand	3
Adrian Kiernander
Dead Ends: the Representation of Indigenous Australia in Louis Nowra's Radiance and Nicholas Parsons's Dead Heart	23
Kerrie Schaefer
The Geopolitics of Australian National Reconciliation in Kooemba Idarra's The 7 Stages of Grieving	37
Martina Ghosh-Schellhorn
Upstaging Tradition: Two Contemporary Plays from India	51
Frank Schulze-Engler
Civil Society and the Struggle for a Democratic Transition in Modern Nigerian Drama: Ken Saro Wiwa's "The Transistor Radio" and Wole Soyinka's "From Zia, With Love"	67
Goeffrey Davis
"Trying to change the molecules of people who come to see our shows." South African Drama as a Barometer of Change	89
Helge Nowak
Keying in to Caribbean Cultures with Plays by Earl Lovelace and Winsome Pinnock	107
Valérie Bada
Sacrifice and Ritualisation of History in Caribbean Drama	123
Marc Maufort
Forging New Identities: Dramatic Challenges to the Canadian Multicultural Dream	145
Albert-Reiner Glaap
Young Up-and-Coming Playwrights on the Canadian Horizon	157
Notes on Contributors	171