

Critical Theory

Western and Indian

Essays presented to
Professor V.Y. Katak

Edited by
Prafulla C. Kar

PENCRAFT INTERNATIONAL
DELHI-110052

Contents

Foreword

Introduction		1
1. V.Y. Kantak	S.K. Rana	3
2. Comparatism in India and the West	G.N. Devy	12
3. India and Post-Colonial Discourse	Harish Trivedi	36
4. Englishing Indulekha : Translation, the Novel and History	Anitha Devasia and Susie Tharu	56
5. The Scene of Theory in India at the Present Moment: An Emblematic Encounter	Rajeswari Sunder Rajan	79
6. Theatre of Development in Independent India	Neelima Talwar	94
7. The Appropriation of Indian Folk Theatre: Ramlila's New Avatar	Rani Dharker	112
8. Metaphor, Language of Literature, and Contemporary Criticism	Rajnath	122

9.	Bakhtin and Questions of Autobiographical Consummation	Udaya Kumar	148
10.	Psychological Fictions, Literary Truths	Sarla Palkar	166
11.	Adult Talk: On Defining Children's Literature	Deeptha Achar	180
12.	Henry Louis Gates's Theory of Signifyin(g): Towards a New Literary Theory	N.K. Dakorwala	191
13.	English Studies in India	C.K. Seshadri	201
14.	The Persistence of Deconstruction	Prafulla C. Kar	212
15.	Crossing Cultures: (Re)Figurations of Post-Colonial Societies: V.S. Naipaul and Chinua Achebe	TRS Sharma	224
16.	Hybridity and History: The Kipling Question	J. Birjepatil	239
	Contributors		252