

Early Modern Civil Discourses

Edited by

Jennifer Richards

University of Newcastle-upon-Tyne

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

Acknowledgements	vi
Note on Spelling Conventions	vii
Notes on the Contributors	viii
Introduction Jennifer Richards	1
1 Civil Tongues: Language, Law and Reformation Cathy Shrank	19
2 Of Marriage, Morals and Civility Helen Moore	35
3 'Civilized with death': Civility, Duelling and Honour in Elizabethan England Markku Peltonen	51
4 'Words more than civil': Republican Civility in Lucy Hutchinson's 'The Life of John Hutchinson' David Norbrook	68
5 'When civil fury first grew high': Politics and Incivility in Restoration England Sharon Achinstein	85
6 Shakespeare the Barbarian Neil Rhodes	99
7 Tacitus and the Reform of Ireland in the 1590s Andrew Hadfield	115
8 Drama, Ireland and the Question of Civility Thomas Healy	131
9 Uncivil Monarchy: Scotland, England and the Reputation of James IV Dermot Cavanagh	146
10 The Civility of Early Modern Welsh Women Kate Chedgzoy	162
11 The Cultural Impact of the Massacre of St Bartholomew's Day Robert White	183
Index	200