

BLACK BRITISH WRITING

By

R. VICTORIA ARANA AND LAURI RAMEY

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
R. Victoria Arana and Lauri Ramey
Chapter 1 Narrating the Africanist Presence in the Early Modern Survey of English Literature	9
Ann Kelly
Chapter 2 Sea Change: Historicizing the Scholarly Study of Black British Writing	19
✕ R. Victoria Arana
Chapter 3 The Politics of Teaching Black and British	47
✕ Maria Helena Lima
Chapter 4 The Evolution of Black London	63
✕ Judith Bryan
Chapter 5 Identity and Belonging in Contemporary Black British Writing	73
✕ Chris Weedon
Chapter 6 Transformations Within the Black British Novel	99
✕ Kadija George Sesay
Chapter 7 Contemporary Black British Poetry	109
Lauri Ramey
Chapter 8 The Sociopolitics of Black Britain in the Work of Buchi Emecheta	137
Susan Yearwood

Chapter 9	Deterritorialization, Black British Writers, and the Case of Ben Okri Jude Chudi Okpala	145
Chapter 10	The Black Man and the Dark Lady: The Imaginary African in Early Modern and Modern British Writers Alinda J. Sumers	161
Chapter 11	A Black Briton's View of Black British Literature and Scholarship Tracey Walters	169
	Contributors' Notes	177