

Herspace

Women, Writing, and Solitude

Jo Malin
Victoria Boynton
Editors

The Haworth Press®
New York • London • Oxford

CONTENTS

About the Editors	vii
Contributors	ix
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction	1
Jo Malin
SECTION I: WOMEN THEORIZING HERSPACE— SOLITUDE AND WRITING	19
1. Women Alone: The Spinster's Art	21
Suzette A. Henke
2. With Sure and Uncertain Footing: Negotiating the Terrain of a Solitude in May Sarton's Journals	39
Lisette Schillig
3. Unknown Women: Secular Solitude in the Works of Alice Koller and May Sarton	73
Christina Pugh
4. A Veritable Guest to Her Own Self	95
Lisa Johnson
5. Woolf, Hurston, and the House of Self	105
Kristina Deffenbacher
6. The Domestic Politics of Marguerite Duras	123
Annabelle Cone
SECTION II: WOMEN'S WRITING SPACES— SOLITUDE AND THE CREATIVE PROCESS	143
7. Writing Women, Solitary Space, and the Ideology of Domesticity	147
Victoria Boynton

8. Car, Kitchen, Canyon: Mother Writing Claudia Mon Pere	165
9. Between the Study and the Living Room: Writing Alone and with Others Eleanor Berry	179
SECTION III: WOMEN WRITING HERSPACE— PERSONAL TAKES ON HOME	201
10. What to Make of Missing Children (A Life Slipping into Fiction) Jan Wellington	205
11. The Little Gray House and Me Claudia A. Limbert	231
12. The Colors and the Light Maria Brown	239
13. A Woman's Place Anne Mamary	245
14. Reframing My Life Mary Rose	261
15. An &/or Peace Performance H. Kassia Fleisher &amp;/or Joe Amato	275
Afterword Victoria Boynton	283