
Bloom's Modern Critical Views

ROBERT LOUIS
STEVENSON

Edited and with an introduction by
Harold Bloom
Sterling Professor of the Humanities
Yale University

CHELSEA HOUSE
PUBLISHERS

A Haight's Cross Communications Company

Philadelphia

Contents

Editor's Note	vii
Introduction	1
Harold Bloom
The Style of Stevenson	5
G.K. Chesterton
R.L.S. Revisited	13
Leslie A. Fiedler
The Aesthetics of Adventure	25
Robert Kiely
Stevenson and Scottish Fiction:
The Importance of The Master of Ballantrae	53
Douglas Gifford
Author and Narrator in Weir of Hermiston	79
K.G. Simpson
Children of the Night: Stevenson and Patriarchy	103
William Veeder
James and Stevenson:
The Mixed Current of Realism and Romance	159
George Dekker
The Sedulous Ape: Atavism, Professionalism, and Stevenson's Jekyll and Hyde	185
Stephen Arata

Treasure Island: The Parrot's Tale	211
Alan Sandison
On A Child's Garden of Verses	245
John Hollander
Piracy and Exchange: Stevenson's Pacific Fiction	261
Vanessa Smith
Chronology	307
Contributors	311
Bibliography	313
Acknowledgments	317
Index	319