

Marcin Krygier/Liliana Sikorska (eds.)

For the Loue of Inglis Lede

PETER LANG

Europäischer Verlag der Wissenschaften

Contents

Editorial	7
-----------------	---

LANGUAGE

1. D. Gary Miller (University of Florida)	9
The morphosyntactic legacy of Scand-English contact
2. Rafał Molencki (University of Silesia).....	41
The use of the pluperfect tense in Early Middle English
3. Saara Nevanlinna (University of Helsinki)	55
Observations on assonance of fricative consonants in the rhymes of scribal manuscripts of LME verse
4. Matylda Włodarczyk-Golka (Adam Mickiewicz University)	77
Reported speech analysis in a historical pragmatic perspective: In search of a database

LITERATURE

5. Liliana Sikorska (Adam Mickiewicz University)	97
Imagining heaven: Visions of bliss in medieval mystical discourse
6. Andrzej Wicher (University of Łódź)	133
The Breton lay and the tale of magic: A preliminary attempt at arriving at the internal unity and ideology of selected Breton lays
7. Barbara Kowalik (University of Warsaw)	149
Addressing God in Middle English lyrics
8. Rafał Borysławski (University of Silesia)	161
The co(s)mic space in Chaucer's "Knight's Tale"	