

Interdisciplinary and Cross-Cultural Narratives in North America

EDITED BY
Mark Cronlund Anderson
Irene Maria F. Blayer

PETER LANG
New York • Washington, D.C./Baltimore • Bern
Frankfurt am Main • Berlin • Brussels • Vienna • Oxford

Table of Contents

List of Illustrations.....	vii
List of Tables.....	ix
Acknowledgments.....	xi
1. Introduction
MARK CRONLUND ANDERSON and IRENE MARIA F. BLAYER.....	1
2. Recycling Red Riding Hood in the Americas
SANDRA L. BECKETT.....	7
3. Counter-Stories and Border Identities: Storytelling and Myth as a Means of Identification, Subversion, and Survival in Leslie Marmon Silko's "Yellow Woman" and "Tony's Story"
PAULINE MOREL.....	29
4. A Dialogic Reading of Oral Literature: Harry Robinson's Write It On Your Heart and Beowulf
BERNIE HARDER.....	47

5.	“Blitzkuchen”: An Exploration of Story-Telling in Louise Erdrich’s The Antelope Wife
	UTE LISCHKE.....	61
6.	Storytelling and Transformative Spaces in Louise Erdrich’s The Blue Jay’s Dance , The Birchbark House , and The Last Report on the Miracles at Little No Horse
	DAVID T. McNAB.....	73
7.	Palmer Cox: Telling Stories to Produce Modern Children
	EILEEN MARGERUM.....	89
8.	The Carnavalesque and the Grotesque in Roch Carrier’s La Guerre, yes sir! : A Twentieth-Century Novel with Renaissance Echoes
	MARY ANNE HARSH.....	109
9.	Longfellow’s “Evangeline” and Mailllet’s Pélagie-la-Charrette : Storytelling and the Soul of l’Acadie
	GREGORY MAILLET.....	121
10.	Singing His America: Narrative Strategies of Dissonance in the Story-Songs of Steve Earle
	ANTHONY G. MURPHY.....	137
11.	Sexual/Textual Politics in Chronicles of a Death and a Birth Foretold: 1953 by France Daigle
	MONIKA BOEHRINGER.....	151
	List of Contributors.....	163
	Index.....	167