

Russell West-Pavlov (Ed.)

(with Anja Schwarz, Annett Baumgärtel, Heidi Plucknett and Tjane Hartenstein)

Who's Australia? – Whose Australia?

Contemporary Politics, Society and Culture in Australia

wvt Wissenschaftlicher Verlag Trier

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	vii
I. Who's Australia, Or, Whose Australia? Russell West-Pavlov	1
II. Australia as an International Human Rights Citizen: Understanding 'National Interest' Katharine Gelber	11
III. Immigration Policy: Australia's Experience and Implications For Germany Glenn Withers	31
IV. The Changing Resonance of 'the International' in Australian Politics and Culture Nicholas Brown	43
V. The Tyranny of Proximity: Australia in the Era of Globalisation Fiona Allon	65
VI. Aboriginal Muslims: The Practice and Politics of Hybrid Identities in a Globalising World Peta Stephenson	83
VII. "A Global Indigeneity?" Vanessa Castejon	99
VIII. Fact, Fantasy and Fraud on Australian Frontiers Anna Haebich	107
IX. Lesbian and Gay Activism in Australia: Writing, Reception and Impact Graham Willett	119

X.	Australian Identity vs. Individuality? Negotiations in the Novels of David Malouf Jörg Heinke	129
XI.	Flowers of Good and Evil: Christopher Brennan, Irish-Australian Symbolist Poet in Wilhelmine Berlin John Stephenson	141
XII.	Double-Crossing the One Nation: Contemporary Asian-Australian Narratives Russell West-Pavlov	157
XIII.	Reconciling Myths: The Metaphysics of Ecological Sustainability in Contemporary Australia Paul Carter	173
	Contributors	189