

The Wordsworthian Enlightenment

Romantic Poetry and the Ecology of Reading

Edited by Helen Regueiro Elam and
Frances Ferguson

The Johns Hopkins University Press
Baltimore

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
HELEN REGUEIRO ELAM AND FRANCES FERGUSON Introduction	I
PART I: Nature and Memory in the Post Era
I GEOFFREY H. HARTMAN Reading: The Wordsworthian Enlightenment	29
2 ORTWIN DE GRAEF Encrypted Sympathy: Wordsworth's Infant Ideology	45
3 FRANCES FERGUSON Romantic Memory	71
PART II: Boundaries and the Problem of Knowledge
4 PAUL H. FRY Green to the Very Door? The Natural Wordsworth	97
5 GERALD L. BRUNS Poetic Knowledge: Geoffrey Hartman's Romantic Poetics	112
6 ROBERT J. GRIFFIN Wordsworth's Horse	129
PART III: Representation and Terror: Proleptic Histories
7 ALAN LIU The New Historicism and the Work of Mourning	149

8	KEVIS GOODMAN	158
	Making Time for History: Wordsworth, the New Historicism, and the Apocalyptic Fallacy
9	PATRICIA PARKER	172
	Sound Government, Polymorphic Bears: The Winter's Tale and Other Metamorphoses of Eye and Ear
10	PETER J. MANNING	191
	The Other Scene of Travel: Wordsworth's "Musings Near Aquapendente"
11	DONALD G. MARSHALL	212
	Writing Criticism: Art, Transcendence, and History
PART IV: Audible Scenes: Ecologies of Reading
12	J. DOUGLAS KNEALE	227
	Gentle Hearts and Hands: Reading Wordsworth after Geoffrey Hartman
13	LUCY NEWLYN	247
	"Reading After": The Anxiety of the Writing Subject
14	LESLIE BRISMAN	263
	Daring to Go Wrong
15	J. HILLIS MILLER	281
	Rachel When from the Lord
16	CATHY CARUTH	296
	An Interview with Geoffrey Hartman
	Notes	319
	Contributors	367
	Index	371