

Charles Dickens's
Oliver Twist
A Sourcebook

Edited by Juliet John

Contents

List of Illustrations	xv
Annotation and Footnotes	xvi
Acknowledgements	xvii
Introduction	1
I: Contexts	5
Contextual Overview	7
Literary and Biographical Background	7
Social, Historical and Cultural Background	11
The Poor Law Amendment Act	11
Utilitarianism	13
The Civilization of Everyday Life?	14
Chronology	19
Contemporary Documents	24
From the Poor Law Commission, Second Annual Report	24
From 'The Poor Law Debate', The Annual Register, 1834	24
From letter to Thomas Beard (17 May 1837)	27
From letter to Thomas Haines (3 June 1837)	27
From letter to Richard Bentley (16 September 1837)	28
From letter to Mrs George Hogarth (26 October 1837)	28
From letter to Richard Bentley (?early January 1838)	29
From letter to G. H. Lewes (?9 June 1838)	29
From letter to George Cruikshank (?6 October 1838)	30
From letter to John Forster (6 or 13 October 1838)	30
From letter to John Forster (21 January 1839)	31

[An Appeal to Fallen Women]. (28 October 1847)	31
From letter to Mrs [Eliza] Davis (10 July 1863)	33
From letter to Mrs [Eliza] Davis (16 November 1864)	34
From John Forster, The Life of Charles Dickens	34
From George Cruikshank, 'The Origin of Oliver Twist ' (1871)	35
From Queen Victoria, The Girlhood of Queen Victoria	37
From Edward Bulwer Lytton, Preface (1840) to Paul Clifford (1830)	38
From Edward Bulwer Lytton, 'A Word to the Public' (1846)	38

2: Interpretations 41

Critical History 43

Early Critical Reception 51

From [Charles Buller], 'The Works of Dickens' (1837)	51
From [John Forster], review in the Examiner (1837)	52
From [G. H. Lewes?], review of Sketches, Pickwick and Oliver Twist (1837)	53
From [Thomas Henry Lister], review of Sketches, Pickwick, Nickleby and Oliver Twist (1838)	54
From anonymous review of Oliver Twist , The Spectator (1838)	55
From unsigned review of Oliver Twist , Literary Gazette (1838)	56
From William Makepeace Thackeray, 'Horæ Catnachianæ' (1839)	57
From [Richard Ford] 'Oliver Twist; or the Parish Boy's Progress' (1839)	57
From William Makepeace Thackeray, Catherine (1839–40)	60
From [Anonymous], 'Charles Dickens and His Works' (1840)	60
From [Anonymous], 'Literary Recipes' (1841)	61
From George Gissing, ' Oliver Twist ' (c. 1898–1900)	62

Modern Criticism 63

From G. K. Chesterton, ' Oliver Twist ' (1911)	63
From Edmund Wilson, 'Dickens: The Two Scrooges' (1941)	64
From George Orwell, 'Charles Dickens' (1946)	65
From Humphry House, 'The Macabre Dickens' (1947)	66
From Humphry House, Introduction to The Adventures of Oliver Twist (1949)	67
From Graham Greene, 'The Young Dickens' (1951)	67
From Harry Stone, 'Dickens and the Jews' (1959)	68
From John Bayley, ' Oliver Twist : Things as They Really Are' (1962)	70
From Steven Marcus, 'Who is Fagin?' (1985)	71
From John Lucas, The Melancholy Man (1970)	72
From J. Hillis Miller, 'The Fiction of Realism' (1971)	73
From Dennis Walder, Dickens and Religion (1981)	75
From Helena Michie, The Flesh Made Word (1987)	77
From D. A. Miller, The Novel and the Police (1988)	77
From John O. Jordan, 'The Purloined Handkerchief' (1989)	79
From Deborah Heller, 'The Outcast as Villain and Victim' (1990)	82

From Patricia Ingham, Dickens, Women and Language (1992)	84
From John Bowen, Other Dickens (2000)	87
From Juliet John, Dickens's Villains (2001)	89
3: The Work in Performance	93
Introduction	95
From letter to Frederick Yates (?29 November 1838)	102
From George Almar, Oliver Twist (1838)	103
From John Forster, The Life of Charles Dickens	105
From the reading text of Dickens's 'Sikes and Nancy'	105
From pressbook, William Cowen (dir.), Oliver Twist (1933)	106
From pressbook, David Lean (dir.), Oliver Twist (1948)	107
Reviews of Screen Adaptations	108
From [Anonymous], 'Berlin Cinema Fight', Guardian (21 February 1949)	109
From [Anonymous], 'Baton Charge on Berlin Oliver Twist Objectors', Daily Telegraph (22 February 1949)	110
From Rhoda Koenig review, Evening Standard (7 July 1999)	111
From James Rampton, Independent Review (1 December 1999)	111
4: Key Passages	115
Introduction	117
Key Passages	119
The Author's Preface to the Third Edition of Oliver Twist (1841)	119
Preface to the Cheap Edition of Oliver Twist (1850)	124
The Opening	127
Oliver Asks for More	129
Oliver at Mr Sowerberry the Undertaker's; Noah Claypole	134
Oliver's First Experience of the Artful Dodger, London and Fagin and his Gang	137
Oliver 'Between Sleeping and Waking'; Oliver is Given a Lesson in Pickpocketing	143
Bill Sikes	145
Oliver, Mr Brownlow and Books; Mr Grimwig	147
Nancy Argues with Fagin	149
The Narrator on the Novel: The 'Streaky Bacon' Passage	151
Oliver's Education in the Thieves' Den	153
Oliver Reads a Book Resembling the Newgate Calendar	155
Mr Bumble and Mrs Corney	156
Rose Maylie	158
Blathers and Duff; Conkey Chickweed	159

A Rural Idyll; Oliver Half Asleep	161
Nancy's Interview with Rose	163
Fagin Consoles Charley Bates over the Capture of the Artful Dodger; The Trial of the Artful Dodger	164
Sikes's Murder of Nancy	168
The Flight of Sikes	170
The Pursuit of Sikes at Jacob's Island and his Death	173
Fagin's Trial and Fagin in the Condemned Cell	177
The Happy Ending	182

5: Further Reading

185

Recommended Editions	187
Recommended Critical Works	187
Reference Works	189
Index	190