

POLITICS OTHERWISE

Shakespeare as Social and Political Critique

Edited by Leonidas Donskis and J. D. Mininger

Amsterdam - New York, NY 2012

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
Introduction	xi

Part One

The Politics of History / The History of Politics: Shakespeare and Machiavelli

ONE	Machiavelli vs. Shakespeare: Love, Hatred, and the Emergence of the Modern Individual LEONIDAS DONSKIS	3
TWO	Politics as Tragedy: Shakespearian Treatment of Machiavellian Themes DAVID COOMBES	31

Part Two

Circumscribing the Political

THREE	Othello, the Secret of the Political CORY STOCKWELL	55
FOUR	Deception, Nature and Nihilism in Politics: King Lear and Kurosawa's Ran BARTHOLOMEW RYAN	69
FIVE	Platonism and Politics in The Tempest ERVIN BECK	85
SIX	Currencies of Love: Political and Ethical Economies of Language in Shakespeare J. D. MININGER AND JASON MICHAEL PECK	95

Part Three

Governance, Law, Public Politics

SEVEN	Images of the Crown: Depersonified Governmentalities, a New Multitude, and Primitive Thinking TOMAS BERKMANAS	113
-------	---	-----

EIGHT	Katyn Does Not Happen Twice
	TOMAS KAVALIAUSKAS AND RŪTA BAGDANAVIČIŪTĖ	143

Part Four

Shakespeare and the Politics of Translation

NINE	An Interview with Tomas Venclova
	J. D. MININGER AND JUSTAS PATKAUSKAS	165
	Contributors	173
	Index	177