

Torture and Brutality in Medieval Literature

Negotiations of National Identity

Larissa Tracy

D. S. BREWER

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Abbreviations	ix
Introduction	1
1. Rending the Flesh: The Orthodoxy of Torture in Hagiography	31
2. Resisting the Rod: Torture and the Anxieties of Continental Identity	70
3. The Matter of the North: Icelandic Sagas and Cultural Autonomy	108
4. The Matter of Britain: Defining English Identity in Opposition to Torture	132
5. Laughing at Pain: The Comic Uses of Torture and Brutality	191
6. Medieval Torture and Early-Modern Identity	243
Conclusion	292
Select Bibliography	299
Index	319