

CASE STUDIES IN LANGUAGE CURRICULUM DESIGN

Concepts and Approaches in Action Around the World

Edited by John Macalister and I. S. P. Nation

CONTENTS

| | |
|--|-----|
| Preface | vii |
| List of Contributors | ix |
| 1 Introduction Paul Nation and John Macalister | 1 |
| 2 A Survival Language Learning Syllabus for Foreign Travel Paul Nation and David Crabbe | 8 |
| 3 Design Meeting Context: A General English Course for Burmese Adults Katie Julian and Derek Foster | 21 |
| 4 Designing English Language Courses for Omani Students Angela Joe | 40 |
| 5 My Ideal Vocabulary Teaching Course Paul Nation | 49 |
| 6 Opening the Door to International Communication: Peruvian Officials and APEC Susan Smith | 63 |
| 7 Helping Skilled Migrants into Employment: The Workplace Communication Program Nicky Riddiford | 72 |

vi Contents

| | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 8 | The Blended Language Learning Course in Taiwan: Issues and Challenges of Instructional Design Gi-Zen Liu | 82 |
| 9 | Designing the Assessment of a University ESOL Course John Read and Lizzy Roe | 101 |
| 10 | Refreshing a Writing Course: The Role of Evaluation John Macalister | 114 |
| 11 | Localizing Spanish in the Ann Arbor Languages Partnership: Developing and Using a “Teachable” Curriculum Donald Freeman, Maria Coolican, and Kathleen Graves | 129 |
| 12 | Learning to Teach Spanish: Identifying, Inducting, and Supporting Apprentice Teachers in the Ann Arbor Languages Partnership Donald Freeman, Maria Coolican, and Kathleen Graves | 147 |
| 13 | Negotiated Syllabuses: Do You Want to? Andrew Boon | 166 |
| 14 | Enhancing Consumerist Literacy Practices in an Urbanizing Community Moses Samuel and Saratha Sithamparam | 178 |
| 15 | The Teacher as Intermediary between National Curriculum and Classroom Kevin Parent | 186 |
| 16 | Developing a Blogwriting Program at a Japanese University Patrick Foss | 195 |
| | Index | 209 |