

THE FINAL CRISIS OF THE STUART MONARCHY

The Revolutions of 1688–91 in their British,
Atlantic and European Contexts

Edited by

Tim Harris and Stephen Taylor

THE BOYDELL PRESS

Contents

Abbreviations	vi
Preface	vii
1. In Search of the Mot Juste : Characterizations of the Revolution of 1688–9 Lionel K.J. Glassey (University of Glasgow)	1
2. The Damning of King Monmouth: Pulpit Toryism in the Reign of James II Mark Goldie (Churchill College, Cambridge)	33
3. Whig Thought and the Revolution of 1688–91 John Marshall (Johns Hopkins University)	57
4. The Restoration, the Revolution and the Failure of Episcopacy in Scotland Alasdair Raffe (Northumbria University)	87
5. Scotland under Charles II and James VII and II: In Search of the British Causes of the Glorious Revolution Tim Harris (Brown University)	109
6. Ireland's Restoration Crisis John Gibney	133
7. Ireland, 1688–91 Toby Barnard (Hertford College, Oxford)	157
8. Rumours and Rebellions in the English Atlantic World, 1688–9 Owen Stanwood (Boston College)	189
9. The Revolution in Foreign Policy, 1688–1713 Tony Claydon (Bangor University)	219
10. Political Conflict and the Memory of the Revolution in England, 1689–c.1745 Gabriel Glickman (Warwick University)	243
11. Afterword: State Formation, Political Stability and the Revolution of 1688 Stephen Taylor (University of Durham)	273
Index	305