

IRELAND:
SPACE, TEXT, TIME

Edited by
Liam Harte, Yvonne Whelan and Patrick Crotty

The Liffey Press

Contents

Introduction xi
Liam Harte

1. LANDSCAPE, HERITAGE, MEMORY

1. History, Remembrance and Oblivion 3
Terry Eagleton

2. "Gloom and Grandeur" or the Threshing Floor:
The Manufacture of Ecclesiastical Ruins in Nineteenth-Century Ireland 15
Máirín Ní Cheallaigh

3. Late Nineteenth-Century Landscape Representation and the Development of Irish Fiction 25
Julie Anne Stevens

4. National Identity and Urban Topography in Joyce's and Kinsella's Dublin 35
Derval Tubridy

5. "The Constant Reality Running through Our Lives":
Commemorating Easter 1916 45
Róisín Higgins

6. "The Glorious Dead?": Commemorating the Security
Forces in Northern Ireland 57
Catherine Switzer
7. Origin and Oblivion: Representations of Death in the Poetry of Medbh McGuckian and Eiléan Ní
Chuilleanáin 67
Borbála Faragó

2. GEOGRAPHIES OF BELONGING

8. Teaching Irish Spaces in Different Times and Places:
Reflections of a Peripatetic Irish Historian 79
Elizabeth Malcolm
9. "A Dialogue in Hibernian Stile": Controlling
Language and Constructing History in Early Eighteenth-Century Ireland 93
James Ward
10. Moving Titles of a Young Ireland Text: Davis, Duffy,
McGee and the Origins of Tiocfaidh Ár Lá 103
Brian Lambkin
11. "His Lights Are Not Ours": W. B. Yeats and the Wartime Poems of Louis MacNeice 113
Richard Danson Brown
12. Beyond the Cartesian Imagination: Placing Beckett 125
Charles Travis
13. "The Beckett Country" Revisited: Beckett, Belonging and Longing 135
Seán Kennedy
14. The Contemporary Appeal of Sophocles' Philoctetes 145
Loredana Salis

3. NEGOTIATING MIGRANT AND DIASPORA SPACES

15. Exploring Diaspora Space: Entangled Irish/English Genealogies	157
Bronwen Walter
16. An Eighteenth-Century Version of Diasporic Irish Identity	177
Thomas Byrne
17. Forging an Irish Identity in Nineteenth-Century Quebec	187
Aidan McQuillan
18. The Potency of Cheap Music: Exile, Ballads and Performance in Irish Cinema	199
Ruth Barton
19. Navy Narratives: Interactions between Autobiographical and Fictional Accounts of Irish Construction Workers in Britain	209
Tony Murray
Bibliography	219
Index	241