

(Re)Constructing Cultures of Violence and Peace

Edited by

Richard Jackson

Amsterdam – New York, NY 2004

Contents

Introduction Richard Jackson	1
----------------------------------------	---

Part 1 Constructing Cultures of Violence

The Infection of Heresy: Religious Conquest and Confessional Violence in Early Modern France Brian Sandberg	17
Constructing Violence: Historical Memory and a 1912 Courtroom Massacre in Virginia's Blue Ridge Mountains Randal L. Hall	31
The (Re)Legitimisation of State Violence in Britain and the USA Christopher Macallister	45
The Social Construction of Internal War Richard Jackson	61
Soccer Hooliganism in Poland: Its Extent, Dynamism and Psycho-Social Conditions Przemysław Piotrowski	79
Sexual Morality and the Impossibility of a Violent Act Jennifer Suchland	91

Part 2 (Re)Constructing Cultures of Peace

Generating Genre: Towards a Way of Addressing the Holocaust and Hiroshima Gwyneth Bodger	105
Transitions from Violence to Peace: A Cultural Change Model Elissa Teeple	123

High Politics Versus Violence: The Kosovo Compromise John Moukas	137
Teacher Training for Prevention of Domestic Abuse Martha Apostolidou	155
Conclusion: The Challenges of Future Research On Violence Joseph Drew	175