

Writing the Lives of Writers

Edited by

Warwick Gould and Thomas F. Staley

in association with
CENTRE FOR ENGLISH STUDIES
SCHOOL OF ADVANCED STUDY
UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgements	viii
Notes on the Contributors	xii
1 A Matter of Life and Death Martin Stannard	1
2 Life over Literature; or, Whatever Happened to Critical Biography? John Haffenden	19
3 The Birth of the Author Lawrence Lipking	36
4 Re-creating Chaucer Ruth Kennedy	54
5 William Tyndale: Bricks without Straw David Daniell	68
6 Writing Contexts in William Roper's Life of Thomas More Mark Robson	79
7 Life-Writing without Letters: Fielding and the Problem of Evidence Martin C. Battestin	90
8 'Acquainted with all the Modes of Life': The Difficulty of Biography Isobel Grundy	107
9 The White Doe of Rylstone : An Exercise in Autobiographical Displacement John Williams	125

- | | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 10 | The Right to Privacy/The Will to Knowledge:
Henry James and the Ethics of Biographical Enquiry
Richard Salmon | 135 |
| 11 | Ford, Eliot, Joyce, and the Problems of Literary Biography
Max Saunders | 150 |
| 12 | ‘Witch’ or ‘Bitch’ – Which? Yeats, Archives, and the Profession of Authorship
Warwick Gould | 173 |
| 13 | The Biographer and Perspective
John Worthen | 191 |
| 14 | Explaining the Abnormal: D. H. Lawrence and Tuberculosis
David Ellis | 204 |
| 15 | “‘The Past’ is with me, seen anew’: Biography’s
End in Dorothy Richardson’s Pilgrimage
Joanne Winning | 212 |
| 16 | Am I Afraid of Virginia Woolf?
Hermione Lee | 224 |
| 17 | Devilish Repressions: Bertrand Russell’s Use of Fiction as Autobiography
Ray Monk | 239 |
| 18 | Constructing the Biographical Subject:
The Case of Malcolm Lowry
Gordon Bowker | 266 |
| 19 | Textual Biography: Writing the Lives of Books
Antony Atkins | 277 |
| 20 | Vignettes: Leavis, Biography and the Body
Ian MacKillop | 293 |

Contents

vii

21	Richard Wright: Intellectual Exile Hazel Rowley	302
22	Private Scandals and Public Actions: The Politics of Reputation in the Career of Brian Penton Patrick Buckridge	313
	Index	320