

Passions and Tempers

A History of the Humours

Noga Arikha

ecco

An Imprint of HarperCollinsPublishers

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
List of Illustrations	xv
Prologue	xvii
A Note on Terminology	xxiii

I. FOUNDATIONS: ANCIENT INSIGHTS

(Antiquity: Sixth Century BC to Second Century AD)

1. Cosmic Elements	3
2. Human Elements	6
3. Types, Temperaments, and Environments	9
4. Prescriptions and Priests	14
5. From Greece to Alexandria	18
6. The Naked Eye	21
7. The Breath of Life	24
8. Alexandrian Sects and Galenic Travels	29
9. Primordial Passions	33
10. Three Souls	37

II. ESSENCES: THE CLASSICAL TRAIL

(Eastern Middle Ages: Seventh to Twelfth Centuries)

1. Byzantium	45
2. The Arab Conquest	48
3. Hunayn ibn-Is'haq and the Translators	50
4. Divine Creation and Human Frailty	53
5. Religion and Emotion	57

6. New Departures	61
7. Persian Insights	64
8. Out of Spain	68

III. REMEDIES: MIRACULOUS MEDICINE

(Western Middle Ages: Fifth to Fourteenth Centuries)

1. Faith and Healing	73
2. Scholasticism and Humoural Care	78
3. Old Convictions	80
4. The High and the Low	83
5. Outsiders	87
6. Bloody Treatments	89
7. Verbena, Olives, and Herbal Power	92
8. Apothecaries, Alchemists, and Amulets	96
9. Airs, Waters, Places, Diets	98
10. Fearful Epidemics	104
11. Life After Death	109

IV. HARMONIES: RENAISSANCE BODIES AND MELANCHOLY SOULS

(Renaissance: Fifteenth Century to Early Seventeenth Century)

1. Hypochondria at Court	113
2. The Black Sun	115
3. Mind, Matter, and Metaphysics	120
4. Cosmic Attunement	124
5. Musical Therapy	126
6. Artistic Astrology	130
7. Paracelsus and the Magic of Nature	135
8. Corpses, Books, and Reputations	139
9. Beauty Beneath the Skin	143
10. New Bodies, Old Science	151
11. Diagnosing Melancholy	155
12. Love-Maladies	159
13. Uterine Fury and Satyriasis	162
14. Anti-Melancholy Antidotes	167

V. NATURE: OF BLOOD, AIRS, AND REASONS

(Scientific Revolution: Seventeenth Century)

1. New Science, Old Bodies	173
2. Campanella's Heavens and Galileo's Revolutions	175
3. Atoms and Humours	179
4. From Spirits to Circulation	183
5. Harvey's Blood	187
6. Cartesian Souls	191
7. Anti-Humours	195
8. Empiricism	199
9. Medical Secrets and Popular Healers	202
10. Transfusions and Confusions	207

VI. BRAIN: PASSIONS AND NERVES

(The Making of Modernity: Seventeenth to Nineteenth Centuries)

1. Cartesian Humours	215
2. The Physiological Self	217
3. The Sensitive Soul	220
4. Introducing "Neurologie"	223
5. Enlightened Thinkers, Old-Fashioned Doctors, and the Embodied Mind	227
6. Of Mechanism and Vitalism	231
7. Nervous Juice	235
8. The Material Soul	238
9. Modern Humours	243
10. Mental Illness	246
11. Mesmerism	249
12. The Birth of Psychiatry	253
13. Brain Localization	258
14. Hypnosis, Hysterics, Neurosis	263

VII. SCIENCE: CONTEMPORARY HUMOURS

(Twentieth and Twenty-first Centuries)

1. The Neurological Self	271
2. The Pharmaceutical Self	274

3. Brain Images and Body Image	280
4. The Emotional Self	282
5. New Temperaments	287
6. Mind Over Matter	291
7. The Regimen Returns	295
8. Full Circle	301
Endnotes	307
References	329
Picture Credits	352
Index	353