Detailed Contents

Preface	xiii
Acknowledgments	xviii
About the Authors	xix
PART I: QUALITATIVE PRACTICE
Chapter 1: An Invitation to Qualitative Research	3
What Is Qualitative Research?	3
A Holistic Approach to Research	6
Quantitative Research and Positivism	8
What Kinds of Questions and Problems Can Be Addressed With Qualitative Methods?	9
Illustrations of Qualitative Studies	10
What Do We Want You to Learn From This Book?	12
Glossary	13
Discussion Questions and Activities	13
Resources	13
Chapter 2: Approaches to Qualitative Research	15
What Are the Major Methodological (Theoretical) Approaches to Qualitative Research?	15
Post-positivism	16
The Interpretive Strand	17
The Critical Strand	20
Conclusion	26
Glossary	27
Discussion Questions and Activities	28
Resources	28
Chapter 3: Designing Qualitative Approaches to Research	31
How Do We Know What We Know?	31
What Is a Qualitative Approach to Research? Qualitative Research Inquiry: A Dynamic Dance	33

What Is the Role of Methodology in the Research Process?	38
Formulating Research Questions:
What Do You Want to Ask?	39
Deriving Research Topics and Questions	40
Research Methods: How Will You Answer
Your Research Questions?	44
Sampling	45
Validity	48
Reliability	52
Conclusion	54
Glossary	55
Discussion Questions	56
Resources	57

Chapter 4: The Ethics of Social Research 59

Why Is Ethical Practice Important?	59
A Short History of Ethics in Research	60
The Tuskegee Syphilis Study	60
Further Developments in the History of Research Ethics	61
How Are Research Subjects Protected Today?	63
Beyond Informed Consent: What Are the Ethical Dilemmas
in Social Research?	72
The Ethical Predicament of Deception in Research	72
Divided Loyalties: An Ethical Researcher Dilemma	76
How Can I Observe Ethical Values in My Research Practice?	77
Key Ethical Issues Generated by Student Research
and Strategies for Overcoming Them	78
How Do New Technologies in Social Research Impact
the Practice of Ethical Research?	80
Overcoming Ethical Dilemmas of
Social Software Technologies	82
Conclusion	82
Glossary	85
Discussion Questions	85
Resources	86

PART II: METHODS OF DATA COLLECTION

Chapter 5: In-Depth Interview 93

Becoming a Member of a Religious Cult	93
What Is an In-Depth Interview?	94
When Is It Appropriate to Use In-Depth Interviews?	95
How Do You Design and Conduct an In-Depth Interview Study?	99
Ethical Considerations in In-Depth Interviewing	100
Interview Structures and Levels of Control	102
Preparing an Interview Guide	103

How Do You Conduct an In-Depth Interview?	105
How Do I Interview Across Differences Between Myself and My Respondent?	111
Insider or Outsider?	116
Doing Difference: Examples of Taking Account of Difference in the Research Process	117
Reflexivity and Difference	120
How Do You Analyze and Interpret Interview Data?	123
Conclusion	126
Glossary	126
Discussion Questions	128
Resources	128
Chapter 6: Oral History	131
What Is Oral History?	131
How Is Oral History Distinct From In-Depth Interview?	133
What Techniques Facilitate Data Collection in Oral History?	138
Building Rapport and Dealing With Difference	138
Listening	140
Storytelling and Narrative Styles	144
What Are the Issues of Collaboration and Authority in Oral History?	149
Decentering Authority and Democratic Practice	150
Empowerment, Ethics, and Conflict Within Collaboration	153
Archiving Oral Histories	157
Conclusion	159
Glossary	160
Discussion Questions	160
Resources	161
Chapter 7: Focus Group Interviews	163
What Are Focus Group Interviews?	163
Some Background on Focus Groups	164
The Differences Between Focus Group Interviews and In-Depth Interviews During Data Collection	166
How Do You Design a Focus Group Study?	171
Mixed Method Designs: Combining Qualitative and Quantitative Data	172
Qualitative Multimethod Designs	176
Sampling and Standardization	178
The Role of the Researcher in Focus Groups: Moderator	181
How Is Focus Group Data Analyzed and Represented Concept Mapping	187
Conclusion	188
Glossary	189
Discussion Questions and Activities	190
Resources	191

Chapter 8: Ethnography	193
What Is Ethnography?	193
Using an Ethnographic Approach: When Is It Appropriate?	197
How Do You Get Started? Negotiating the Research Setting	199
What Is Autoethnography?	210
How Do You Gather and Manage Your Ethnographic Data?	215
Keeping Fieldnotes	216
Conclusion	222
Glossary	223
Discussion Questions	224
Resources	225
Chapter 9: Content Analysis and Unobtrusive Methods	227
What Is Content Analysis?	227
The Uses of Content Analysis	228
Qualitative and Quantitative Traditions: What Are the Main Approaches to Content Analysis?	232
Qualitative Textual Analysis: Postmodern and Post-structural Approaches	236
Visual Research: Photographs, Images, and Interactive Visual Research	242
Exercise on Coding Advertisements	245
Audiovisual Analysis: Working With Multiple Fields	248
Computer-Driven Content Analysis	250
Emergent Ethical Concerns With Computer-Driven Content Analysis	251
Conclusion	252
Glossary	253
Discussion Questions	253
Resources	254
Chapter 10: Case Study	255
What Is a Case Study?	255
Continuum of Perspectives on Case Study Research	260
How Do You Design Case Study Research?	264
Data Organization, Analysis, and Representation	265
A Case Study of a Sorority	266
Multiple Case Study	274
Conclusion	275
Glossary	275
Discussion Questions	276
Resources	276
Chapter 11: Mixed Methods Research	277
What Is Mixed Methods Research?	278
Reasons for Using a Mixed Methods Design	280
The Research Nexus	281
How Do You Design a Mixed Methods Research Project?	282

What Are the Problems and Prospects of Mixed Methods Designs?	286
How Do I Analyze Data From a Mixed Methods Study Using Computer-Assisted Software Programs?	287
The Process of Quantizing: An Example	288
The Process of Qualitizing: Using Quantitative Variables to Directly Enhance Qualitative Analysis	290
Conclusion	292
Glossary	295
Discussion Questions	296
Resources	296

PART III: ANALYSIS AND INTERPRETATION

Chapter 12: Analysis and Interpretation of Qualitative Data 301

What Are the Steps Involved in Qualitative Data Analysis and Interpretation?	302
Step 1: Data Preparation Phase	302
Transcription Software for Qualitative Data Analysis	304
Steps 2 and 3: Data Exploration Phase and Data Reduction Phase	305
What Is a Grounded Theory Approach to Data Coding and Analysis?	307
How Do You Write Memos?	308
What Is an Example of the Coding Process?	309
Step 4: Interpretation	315
How Do You Establish Validity and Reliability of a Qualitative Interpretation?	318
What Computer-Assisted Software Exists for Qualitative Data Analysis?	319
What Computer Software Programs Are Out There, and Which One Should I Choose?	321
How Can I Use a Computer-Assisted Program to Analyze My Qualitative Data?	323
The Preparation Phase	326
The Exploration Phase	326
The Specification/Data Reduction Phase	328
The Reporting Phase	328
Conclusion	328
Glossary	330
Discussion Questions	330
Resources	331

Chapter 13: The Writing and Representation of Qualitative Research 333

Who Is Your Audience?	333
Writing Up a Qualitative Research Project: Steps for Getting It Done	334

Title Page and Abstract	335
Introduction	335
Literature Review	336
Research Design	337
Data Analysis and Interpretation Procedures	338
Conclusions and Implications	342
References and Appendices	343
Editing and Revising Your Research Paper	344
How Do I Represent the Voices of My Respondents?	344
Qualitative Approaches to Representations	346
Alternative Arts-Based Approaches to Writing: Beyond Prose	348
Conclusion	350
Glossary	351
Discussion Questions	351
Resources	351
Chapter 14: The Research Nexus	353
The Future of Qualitative Research	353
What Have We Learned About Traditional Qualitative Methods?	354
What's New in Qualitative Research Practice?	354
Emergent Methods: New Approaches to Old Methods	355
Emergent Methods: New and Underutilized Methods	355
Emergent Methods: Arts-Based Research Practices	356
Emergent Methods: Technological Practices	359
Conclusion: Staying Centered and Building Ethical Knowledge	362
Discussion Questions	362
Resources	362
References	365
Index	383
