

Contents

List of figures	x
Acknowledgements	xi
Introduction	1
The Problem of Eurocentrism	4
Confronting the Problematic of Sociohistorical Difference	5
What is Capitalism?	8
What Is Geopolitics?	10
1 The Transition Debate: Theories and Critique	13
Introduction	13
The 'Commercialisation Model' Revisited: World-Systems Analysis and the Transition to Capitalism	14
The Making of the Modern World- System: The Wallerstein Thesis	14
The Problem of Eurocentrism	16
The Problem of Historical Specificity	19
The Spatiotemporal Limits of Political Marxism	22
The Brenner Thesis: Explanation and Critique	22
The Geopolitical in the Making of Capitalism	27
The Political Marxist Conception of Capitalism	29
The Problematic of Sociohistorical Difference: Postcolonial Studies
Engaging Capital	32
The Eurocentrism of Historicism	33
The Violence of Abstraction	36
The Lacuna of Postcolonial Theory	39
Conclusion	41
2 Rethinking the Origins of Capitalism: The Theory of Uneven and Combined Development	43
Introduction	43
The Theory of Uneven and Combined Development: Exposition and Critiques	44
Unevenness	44
Combination	48

Seeing Through a Prism Darkly? Uneven and Combined Development beyond the Eurocentric Gaze	54
Trotsky beyond Trotsky? Uneven and Combined Development before Capitalism	57
More Questions than Answers: Method, Abstraction and Historicity in Marx's Thought	58
Modes of Production Versus Uneven and Combined Development? A False Antithesis	61
Conclusion: Towards an 'Internationalist Historiography' of Capitalism	63
3 The Long Thirteenth Century: Structural Crisis, Conjunctural Catastrophe	64
Introduction	64
Pax Mongolica as a Vector of Uneven and Combined Development	67
The Nomadic Mode of Production and Uneven and Combined Development	67
The World-Historical Significance of the Mongol Empire	71
Trade, Commerce, and Socio-Economic Development under the Pax Mongolica	73
Apocalypse Then: The Black Death and the Crisis of Feudalism	77
Class Struggle and the Changing Balance of Class Forces in Europe	79
Peasant Differentiation in the Age of the Black Death	81
Development of the Productive Forces	85
Conclusion	87
4 The Ottoman–Habsburg Rivalry over the Long Sixteenth Century	91
Introduction	91
Unevenness: A Clash of Social Reproduction	94
Ottoman–European Relations	94
The Tributary and Feudal Modes of Production: Unevenness Combined	96
Ottoman 'Penalties of Progressiveness' – European 'Privileges of Backwardness'	104
Combination: Pax Ottomana and European Trade	106
The Ottoman 'Whip of External Necessity'	107
The Breakdown of Christendom	111
The Ottoman Blockade and the Emergence of the Atlantic	115
The Ottoman Buffer and English Primitive Accumulation	116

Conclusion: The Ottoman Empire as a Vector of Uneven and Combined Development	119
5 The Atlantic Sources of European Capitalism, Territorial Sovereignty and the Modern Self	121
Introduction	121
Imagining Europe in the Atlantic Mirror: Rethinking the Territorialised Sovereign, Self and Other	123
Tearing Down the Ideological Walls of Christendom: From Sacred to Secular Universalism in the Construction of the European Self and Non-European Other	123
Legitimising Colonialism: The Historical Sociological Foundations of Eurocentrism	126
Culture Wars in the Americas	129
The Colonial Origins of the Modern Territorialised States System	134
1492 in the History of Uneven and Combined Development	141
The Smithian Moment: American Treasures and So-Called Primitive Accumulation	142
Sublating the Smithian Moment: From Smith to Marx via 'the International'	146
Primitive Accumulation Proper: From 'Simple' to 'Expanded' Reproduction	148
The Uneven and Combined Development of Plantation Slavery	152
The Sociological Unevenness of the Atlantic	153
Sociological Combination in the Plantation System	158
New World Slavery and the Rise of Industrial Capitalism	162
Contributions to the Sphere of Circulation	163
Contributions to the Sphere of Production	166
Conclusion: Colonies, Merchants and the Transition to Capitalism	168
6 The 'Classical' Bourgeois Revolutions in the History of Uneven and Combined Development	174
Introduction	174
The Concept of Bourgeois Revolution	177
Reconceptualising Bourgeois Revolutions: A Consequentialist Approach	177
Reconstructing Consequentialism through Uneven and Combined Development	179
The Origins of Capitalism and the Bourgeois Revolution in the Low Countries	180
The Rise of Dutch Capitalism: An International Perspective	180

The Making of the Dutch Revolt	185
The English Revolution in the History of Uneven and Combined Development	190
Rediscovering the English Revolution	190
Social Forces in the Making of the British Revolution	193
1789 in the History of Uneven and Combined Development	198
Peculiarities of the French Revolution?	198
Capitalism and the Absolutist State in France	199
The Origins of the Capitalist Revolution in France	205
Capitalist Consequences of the French Revolution	210
Conclusion	213
7 Combined Encounters: Dutch Colonisation in Southeast Asia and the Contradictions of 'Free Labour'	215
Introduction	215
The Specificity and Limits of Dutch Capitalism	222
Dutch Institutional Innovations	222
The Limits of Dutch 'Domestic' Capitalism	225
Unevenness and Combination in the Pre-Colonial Indian Ocean Littoral	228
The Intersocietal System of the Indian Ocean	228
South Asia beyond the Eurocentric Gaze	230
The Dutch Encounter: A Policy of Combination	231
The Specificities and 'Success' of Dutch Strategies of Integration and Domination in Southeast Asia	231
The Moluccas	235
The Banda Islands	238
Indian Textiles	240
Conclusion	242
8 Origins of the Great Divergence over the Longue Durée: Rethinking the 'Rise of the West'	245
Introduction	245
Rethinking the 'Rise of the West': Advances and Impasses in the Revisionist Challenge	247
Points of Agreement: European 'Backwardness' and the Role of the Colonies	247
Late and Lucky: Contingences, the Eurasian Homogeneity Thesis, and the Great Divergence	248
Structure and Conjuncture in the 'Rise of the West'	251
The Geopolitical Competition Model and Its Limits	251

CONTENTS

Feudalism, Merchants, and the European States System in the Transition to Capitalism	254
Unevenness Combined: North–South Interactions in the ‘Rise of the West’	258
The Conjunctural Moment of ‘Overtaking’: Britain’s Colonisation of India	261
The Significance of India’s Colonisation to the ‘Rise of the West’	261
The Mughal Empire and the Tributary Mode of Production	263
The Imperial Revenue System and Agricultural Decline in the Mughal Empire	265
European Trade and Colonial Conquest: Towards 1757	269
Conclusion	272
Conclusion	274
Notes	283
Index	371