

Sociological Theory

An Introduction to Concepts, Issues, and Research

SECOND EDITION

Mark Abrahamson

University of Connecticut

PRENTICE HALL
Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey 07632

Contents

I

THE INDIVIDUAL IN SOCIETY, 1

Introduction to Part One, 1

1

The Social Self, 3

GEORGE H. MEAD AND OTHERS

Mead and His Perspective, 4

Play and Games, 7

Childrens' Development, 9

Research on Content of Selves, 11

Cooley's "Looking-Glass Self," 13

Goffman's Stage Metaphor, 15

Conclusion, 17

Suggestions for Additional Reading, 18

2

Culture, Society, and Sex Roles, 19

MARGARET MEAD AND W.I. THOMAS

Mead in New Guinea, 20

Learning the Rules, 24

Thomas on Motivation and Change, 28

Diversity and Demoralization, 32

Conclusion, 34

Suggestions for Additional Reading, 34

3

Social and Personality Systems, 35

TALCOTT PARSONS

- Parsons's Influence, 36
- The Three Systems, 37
- The Pattern Variables and AGIL, 39
- Stability of the Social System, 41
- Empirical Applications, 43
- The Criticisms, 45
- Conclusion, 49
- Suggestions for Additional Reading, 49

4

Social Organization and Estrangement, 50

MARX AND DURKHEIM

- Marx on the Means of Production, 51
- Empirical Applications, 53
- Capitalism, Money and Overspecialization, 56
- Marx: Summary and Conclusion, 57
- Durkheim on the Division of Labor, 58
- Anomie, 62
- Merton: Means and Ends, 63
- Conclusion: Marx and Durkheim Compared, 65
- Suggestions for Additional Reading, 67

II

SOCIAL STRUCTURE, PROCESS, AND CHANGE, 69

Introduction to Part Two, 69

5

Human Ecology, 71

PARK, BURGESS, HAWLEY

- Struggle for Existence, 72
- The Newspaper's Changing Role, 74
- Interdependence and Unanticipated Consequences, 77
- How Cities Grow, 80
- Conclusion, 85
- Suggestions for Additional Reading, 86

6 Social Stratification, 87

MARX, WEBER, DAVIS AND MOORE

- Marx on the Economic Order, 88
- Class, 92
- Status, 93
- Party, 94
- The Functional Theory, 97
- Davis and Moore, 98
- Is Stratification Functional? 101
- Concluding Postscript, 103
- Suggestions for Additional Reading, 104

7 Bureaucratic Organizations, 105

WEBER

- Bureaucracy and Modern Social Organization, 106
- Weber on Legitimacy, 108
- Ideal Types, 110
- The Ideal-Type Bureaucracy, 112
- Types of Authority, 116
- Efficiency of Bureaucracy, 119
- Stability of Bureaucracy, 120
- Bureaucracy and Democracy, 122
- Conclusion, 123
- Suggestions for Additional Reading, 124

8 Solidarity and Conflict, 125

SIMMEL

- Size and Form, 126
- Strategies and Tactics, 129
- Sociology: The Study of Form, 133
- Individuals and Society, 135
- Social Conflict, 137
- Suggestions for Additional Reading, 139

9

Behavioral Exchange, 140

HOMANS AND OTHERS

- Learning Studies, 141
- The Calculus of Exchange, 144
- Evaluating Outcomes, 147
- Some Propositions, 149
- What is Fair? 150
- The Macro-Micro Issue, 153
- Conclusion, 154
- Suggestions for Additional Reading, 155

10

Deviance and Change, 156

DURKHEIM, MERTON, ERIKSON

- Boundary Maintenance, 157
- Durkheim's Theory of Deviance, 159
- Crime and Punishment, 161
- The Contributions of Deviance, 162
- Merton on Deviance and Social Organization, 165
- Interpreting Structure's Effects, 168
- Conclusion, 170
- Suggestions for Additional Reading, 170

11

Values and Change, 171

WEBER, MARX, OGBURN

- Weber on Capitalism, 172
- The Protestant Ethic, 174
- Changing Traditional Societies, 176
- Weber and Marx Compared, 179
- Values of the Elite, 180
- Ogburn on Technology and Culture, 182
- Conclusion, 187
- Suggestions for Additional Reading, 188

IIITHE NATURE AND FORM OF SOCIOLOGICAL THEORY, 189

Introduction to Part Three, 189

12Uniquely Sociological Theory, 191

SPENCER, DURKHEIM, HOMANS

Spencer's Principles, 191

Durkheim's Rules, 194

Society, People, and Beasts, 198

What is the Question? 201

Conclusion, 204

Suggestions for Additional Reading, 205

13Theory in a Neutral Science, 206

WEBER, MERTON, AND OTHERS

Positivism (Comte), 206

Weber on Concepts and Patterns, 208

Formal Theory and Operationalism, 210

The Middle Range, 212

Neutrality, 215

The Value-Free Myth? 217

Conclusion, 219

Suggestions for Additional Reading, 220

Index, 221