

Legal Pluralism in the Arab World

by

Baudouin Dupret

Maurits Berger

Laila al-Zwaini

Kluwer Law International
The Hague • London • Boston

Table of Contents

Preface, John Griffiths	vii
Introduction	xi
Biographical Notes	xix
PART I – LEGAL PLURALISM, NORMATIVE PLURALITY, AND THE ARAB WORLD	1
Chapter 1– The Idea of Legal Pluralism, Gordon R. Woodman	3
Chapter 2– Norms, Law and Practices: The Practical Obstacles That Make It Impossible to Separate Them, Jean-Noël Ferrié	21
Chapter 3– Legal Pluralism, Normative Plurality, and the Arab World, Baudouin Dupret	29
Chapter 4– A Critical Survey of Western Law Studies on Arab- Muslim Countries, Jörn Thielmann	41
PART II – A COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVE	55
Chapter 5– Contrasted Identity Claims Before Egyptian and Belgian Courts, Marie-Claire Foblets and Baudouin Dupret	57
Chapter 6– Palestinian Law: Social Segmentation Versus Centrali- zation, Bernard Botiveau	73
Chapter 7– Legal Pluralism and Cultural Unity in Morocco, Lawrence Rosen	89
Chapter 8– Legal Pluralism and Public International Law: An Analysis Based on the International Convention on the Rights of the Child, Murielle Paradelle	97
Chapter 9– The Shari'a and Legal Pluralism: The Example of Syria, Maurits S. Berger	113
Chapter 10– The Treatment of Unfair Terms in Arab Countries: An Investigation into the Effects of Legal Pluralism, Hassan Gemei	125

PART III – LEGAL PLURALISM AND EGYPT	133
Chapter 11– An Administrator’s Nightmare: Feuding Families in Nineteenth Century Bahariyya Oasis, Rudolph Peters	135
Chapter 12– The Haqq al-‘Arab : Conflict Resolution and Distinctive Features of Legal Pluralism in Contemporary Egypt, Sarah Ben Nefissa	145
Chapter 13– The Anarchy of Egyptian Legal System: Wearing Away the Legal and Political Modernity, Nabil ‘Abd al-Fattah	159
Chapter 14– Legal Pluralism and the Closure of the Legal Field: The al-Muhajir Case, Nathalie Bernard-Maugiron	173
Chapter 15– Legal Plurality: Reflection on the Status of Women in Egypt, Nagla Nassar	191
Chapter 16– Formal and Informal Finance in Egypt: The Significance for Legal Pluralism, Ziad Bahaa-Eldin	205
Chapter 17– Legal Plurality and Legitimation of Human Rights Abuses: A Case Study of State Council Rulings Concerning the Rights of Apostates, Ahmed Seif al-Islam Hamad	219
Chapter 18– The Secular Reconstruction of Islamic Law: The Egyptian Supreme Constitutional Court and the “Battle over the Veil” in State-Run Schools, Kilian Bälz	229
 Bibliography	 245
 Index	 265