

Public Company Takeovers in Germany

Dr. Johannes Adolff, LL.M. (Cantab)
Dr. Burkhardt Meister, LL.M. (Harvard)
Charles Randell, M.A. (Oxon)
Dr. Klaus-Dieter Stephan

Verlag C.H. Beck München
City & Financial Publishing
2002

Contents

Introduction: Why this is not a short book	1
Part 1: Regulatory environment	5
A. Governance structure of a stock corporation	5
B. Regulatory framework of the stock market	64
C. Enactment of a new Takeover Act	104
Part 2: Voluntary takeover bids	117
A. The 30% threshold for control	118
B. Cash transactions	120
C. Share-for-share transactions	185
D. Defences against a hostile takeover	200
Part 3: Mandatory offers	229
A. The obligation to make a mandatory offer	229
B. The legal regime for making a mandatory offer	243
C. The prohibition of a mandatory offer	247
D. Sanctions	248
Part 4: Post-acquisition restructuring	249
A. The replacement of board members by the bidder	250
B. Amendments to the articles of association	252
C. The financial autonomy of the target corporation	253
D. The managerial autonomy of the target corporation	259
E. The domination agreement	264
F. Holz Müller transactions	278
G. Restructuring Act (Umwandlungen)	279
H. Squeeze out	294
I. De-listing	301
Appendix I: Glossary	315
Appendix II: Relevant statutes	337
Appendix III: Useful websites	417
Appendix IV: Important German and EU legislation	419
Appendix V: Organised Markets in Europe	431
Index	437