

THE CAPITULATIONS AND THE OTTOMAN LEGAL SYSTEM

Qadis, Consuls and Beraths in the 18th Century

BY

MAURITS H. VAN DEN BOOGERT

BRILL
LEIDEN · BOSTON
2005

CONTENTS

List of Figures and Tables .....	xi
Abbreviations .....	xiii
Acknowledgements .....	xv
Introduction .....	1
Early Studies of the Capitulations .....	4
An Historical Survey .....	7
The Juridical Approach .....	9
Methodology .....	11
Published Texts .....	15
Chapter One The Sultan's Promise .....	19
Sacred Capitulations .....	19
Fermans and Berats .....	24
Revocation .....	26
Müste'mins .....	30
Tax Exemptions .....	32
Jurisdictions .....	33
Consular Jurisdiction .....	34
European Consular Regulations .....	38
The Qadi .....	42
The Imperial Council .....	47
Chapter Two The Protection System .....	63
Ottoman Protégés .....	64
Dragomans .....	64
Sons and Servants ( hizmetkârs ) .....	67
Warehousemen ( mahzencis ) and Brokers ( simsars ) .....	70
Moneychangers ( sarrafs ) .....	72
"Haratch Papers" .....	73
Commercialisation .....	76
An Ambassadorial Perquisite .....	77
The Price of Protection .....	79
Profits .....	82

Recruitment .....	84
The Numbers of Protégés .....	85
A Survey .....	86
Instruments of Imperialism? .....	92
Bureaucratic Procedures .....	93
Western Policies .....	97
Ottoman Policies .....	105
The Legal Status of Beraths .....	112
 Chapter Three Avantias: Misrepresentations of the Ottoman
The Legal System .....	117
Historiography .....	118
Avantia : Definitions and Origins .....	122
Avanists .....	126
The Making of Avantias .....	129
Case Studies .....	133
The European Perspective: Summaries of Nine Avantias .....	133
Analysis: The Ottoman Legal Perspective .....	141
Conclusion .....	155
 Chapter Four The Division of Estates
The Capitulations .....	159
Standard Procedures .....	163
Possible Complications: Ottoman Wives .....	168
Merchant Strangers .....	172
Possible Complications: Witnesses .....	174
The Estates of Dragomans .....	175
Possible Complications: Heirs Who Converted to Islam ....	177
A Case Study: The Estate of Dimitri Dallal .....	179
Actors .....	180
Legal Issues .....	182
Strategies .....	185
Outcome: Abdullah's Claim .....	188
Outcome: Yusuf's Claim .....	191
The Division of Part of the Estate .....	198
Conclusion .....	200
Appendix .....	202

Chapter Five Bankruptcy .....	207
The Capitulations .....	208
“An Unhappy Affair”: The Ideal Bankruptcy .....	213
Standard Procedures .....	217
Possible Complications: Fugitive Bankrupts .....	218
Possible Complications: Ownership of Consignments .....	220
Bankrupt Merchant Strangers and Ottoman Protégés .....	224
A Case Study: The Bankruptcies of Four Ottoman Warehousemen (1763) .....	226
Legal Issues .....	226
The Legal Position of the Consul .....	227
Interested Parties .....	230
Legal Strategies .....	235
a. Dealing with the Consulate .....	235
b. The Porte .....	242
c. The Qadi Court .....	248
i. Court Supervision .....	249
ii. A General Session in the Islamic Court .....	253
iii. Individual Trials in the Islamic Court .....	256
Conclusion .....	259
Appendix .....	262
 Chapter Six Theft
Theft in the Ottoman Legal System .....	263
A Case Study: Legal Disputes in a Partnership of Beraltus (1781–1788) .....	263
Interested Parties .....	267
Legal Issues and Strategies .....	270
Outcome: The Caravan Conductor .....	278
Outcome: Yusuf Dwek Cohen .....	280
The Appeal and Its Aftermath .....	291
Conclusion .....	299
 Chapter Seven Conclusion .....	303
 Archival Sources .....	307
Selected Bibliography .....	309
Index .....	315