

The Unification of Germany in International and Domestic Law

Ryszard W. Piotrowicz
and
Sam K.N. Blay

with two chapters contributed by Gunnar Schuster and Andreas Zimmermann

Amsterdam - Atlanta, GA 1997

Contents

Preface .....	vi
Authors and Contributors .....	vii
Acknowledgments .....	viii
Table of International Instruments .....	ix
Table of German Instruments .....	xi
Table of Abbreviations .....	xii
Chapter 1 Introduction .....	1
Chapter 2 The Changing Status of Germany .....	7
Chapter 3 The Frontiers of Germany .....	45
Chapter 4 Germany and State Succession .....	73
Chapter 5 The Principle of Self-Determination and the Unification of Germany .....	85
Chapter 6 Restitution of Property after German Unification .....	103
Chapter 7 The Criminal Prosecution of Former GDR Officials .....	117
Chapter 8 Abortion: the Divisiveness of Unification .....	173
Chapter 9 Refugee Law in Germany .....	195
Index .....	221