

THE FAMILY, RELIGION, AND CULTURE

From Sacrament to Contract

Marriage, Religion, and Law in the Western Tradition

JOHN WITTE, JR.

Westminster John Knox Press
Louisville, Kentucky

Contents

Series Foreword
Don S. Browning and Ian S. Evison	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction	1
Models of Marriage	2
From Sacrament to Contract	12
1. Marriage as Sacrament in the Roman Catholic Tradition	16
Biblical and Patristic Teachings	16
The Formation of the Sacramental Model of Marriage	22
The Canon Law of Marriage	30
The Tridentine Synthesis	36
2. Marriage as Social Estate in the Lutheran Reformation	42
The Case of Johann Apel	44
The New Evangelical Theology of Marriage	47
The Transformation of Marriage Law in Lutheran Germany	53
Continuity and Discontinuity	70
3. Marriage as Covenant in the Calvinist Tradition	74
The Case of the French Noblewoman	75
The Early Reformation of Marriage Law	78
Calvin's Later Reformation of Marriage Theology	92
Geneva's New Law of Marriage in Action	113
Preservation and Colonization	126
4. Marriage as Commonwealth in the Anglican Tradition	130
The Cases of Henry VIII and Catherine of Aragon	134
The Tudor Reformation of Marriage Theology	140
Legal Reformation and Legal Reversal	154
Marriage as Commonwealth in Seventeenth-Century England	165
John Milton and John Locke	179

5. Marriage as Contract in the Enlightenment Tradition	194
The Case of Stephen versus Mill	198
The Transformation of Anglo-American Marriage Law	202
Reflections	216
Notes	220
Bibliography	274
Index of Biblical References	303
Index of Subjects and Authors	305