

EUROPEAN CONSTITUTIONALISM
BEYOND THE STATE

Edited by

J. H. H. WEILER AND MARLENE WIND

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

CONTENTS

Notes on contributors page vii

Introduction: European constitutionalism beyond the state 1

J. H. H. Weiler and Marlene Wind

PART I

1 In defence of the status quo: Europe's constitutional

Sonderweg 7

J. H. H. Weiler

PART II

2 Postnational constitutionalism and the problem of translation 27

Neil Walker

3 The unfinished constitution of the European Union: principles, processes and culture 55

Francis Snyder

4 Europe and the constitution: what if this is as good as it gets? 74

Miguel Poiares Maduro

5 The European Union as a polycentric polity: returning to a neo-medieval Europe? 103

Marlene Wind

PART III

- 6 Beyond representative democracy: constitutionalism in a polycentric polity 135
Renaud Dehousse
- 7 Finality vs. enlargement: constitutive practices and opposing rationales in the reconstruction of Europe 157
Antje Wiener
- 8 Epilogue: Europe and the dream of reason 202
Philip Allott
- Index* 226