

Erik Werlauff

EU-Company Law
Common business law of 28 states
2nd edition

Translated by Hanne Grøn

DJØF Publishing
2003

Content

Introductions	XIV
Abbreviations	XVII
Chapter 1. Legal Personality And Cross-border Mobility of Companies	1
1.1. Determining the concept of legal person	1
1.2. A community law definition of legal personality	2
1.3. Company nationality determination and -change; international choice of law	3
1.4. Company law consequences of the EU requirement of equal treatment irrespective of nationality	19
1.4.1. Companies	19
1.4.2. Shareholders and other company participants	31
1.4.3. Board and management members	32
1.4.4. Capital movements, e.g. in-group	35
1.4.5. Summary: The EU law objective of company law organisational freedom of choice v the states' pursuit of control, security against evasion etc.	35
1.5. Liability and lifting the veil of incorporation	39
1.6. Loyalty duty towards the interests of the legal person	44
Chapter 2. The Legal Development	57
2.1. Treaty law basis	57
2.2. Secondary legislation as an instrument of legal development	61
2.3. Overview of provisions and proposals	71
2.4. Main features of the substance of the rules and drafts	75
2.4.1. The Disclosure Directive	75

2.4.2.	The Capital Directive	77
2.4.3.	The Merger Directive	83
2.4.4.	The Annual Accounts Directive	83
2.4.5.	The Draft Structural Directive	85
2.4.6.	The Directive on Division of companies	87
2.4.7.	The Directive on consolidated accounts	87
2.4.8.	The Auditor Directive	88
2.4.9.	The Draft Group Directive	89
2.4.10.	The Draft Directive on International Merger	90
2.4.11.	The Branch Directive	90
2.4.12.	The Single-Member Company Directive	91
2.4.13.	The Draft Take-Over Directive	93
2.4.14.	Draft Directive on international transfer of registered office	94
2.4.15.	The Draft Liquidation Directive	95
2.4.16.	The Regulation on Economic Interest Groupings ..	95
2.4.17.	The Merger Control Regulation	96
2.4.18.	Regulation on the European Limited Liability Company: The SE Company	99
2.4.19.	Draft Regulation on the European Private Company	100
2.4.20.	Draft Regulation on the European Co-operative Society	100
2.5.	Perspectives	100
 Chapter 3. Company types		 105
3.1.	The distinction between personal and capital companies ..	105
3.2.	Sole proprietorships/sole trader enterprises	106
3.3.	Single-member companies	109
3.4.	Partnerships, including economic interest groupings	115
3.5.	The European Company, SE	135
3.5.1.	The need for a common European company	135
3.5.2.	Aims still to be achieved	136
3.5.3.	What could more be achieved as per 8 October 2009	137
3.5.4.	The hierarchy of the sources of law	139
3.5.5.	Legal personality, liability limitation and capital requirements	140

3.5.6.	The SE's equal position with ordinary public limited liability companies	141
3.5.7.	Registration, disclosure, commencement of business and promoters' liability	141
3.5.8.	The four methods of formation	142
3.5.9.	The SE company organs	146
3.5.10.	Registered office and transfer	149
3.5.11.	Employees	154
3.6.	The European Co-operative Society	158
3.7.	The European private company	160

Chapter 4. Company Taxation, Capital Injection Levy, and Stock Exchange Turnover Levy	161
4.1. The importance of the equal treatment requirement in company taxation	161
4.2. The legal basis for EU law provisions on company tax	172
4.3. Becoming a group: Tax free merger and takeover	175
4.4. Being a group: The group as a tax unit	177
4.5. Capital injection duties and bans against other charges on capital injection	179

Chapter 5. Company and Enterprise: From Entity Law to Enterprise Law	189
5.1. Enterprise law and Company law	189
5.2. The Treaty and the enterprises	191
5.3. Secondary Community law and the enterprises	192
5.4. From personally owned to company owned enterprise	193
5.5. The enterprise in a company framework	195
5.5.1. The internal relations of the enterprise	196
5.5.2. The external relations of the enterprise	197
5.5.3. A group in a Community law sense	198
5.5.4. From entity law to enterprise law	199
5.6. Summarising characteristics of the concept of enterprise in Community law	199

Chapter 6. Formation of companies	201
6.1. Formation procedure and instruments	201
6.2. Non-cash contributions	204
6.3. The lack of legal capacity of the company	206
6.4. Payments and ban against discounts	207
6.5. Registration and publication of the formation	209
6.6. Establishment of branches in other EU and EEA states	215
Chapter 7. Injection of capital to the company	225
7.1. General on loan capital	225
7.2. Loans with a conversion or subscription right	227
7.3. Authorised capital	229
7.4. Power to decide capital increase	230
7.5. Capital increase upon general meeting resolution	232
7.6. Non-cash contributions	235
7.7. The pre-emption right of the shareholders	239
7.8. Duty of payment-up and time limit for subscribed company capital	246
7.9. Intermediate forms of loan capital and equity: subordinated loan capital	248
Chapter 8. Capital outflow	251
8.1. The power to decide dividend payments	251
8.2. Amount at the disposal for dividend	252
8.3. Is account dividend payment allowed?	254
8.4. Publication of proposed dividend in respect of the accounting year passed	257
8.5. Non-distributable reserves	258
8.6. Repayment of unlawful payments	259
8.7. The company's subscription for, purchase of, loantaking on or financing of its own shares	260
8.8. Loan, security or guarantee to the benefit of company shareholders or members of management or supervisory body	276
8.9. Disguised dividend	280

8.10.	Capital reduction (with payment to the shareholders), amortisation, redemption or re-purchase of shares	284
8.11.	Companies operating at a loss – the company’s duty to react, capital reduction without payment to the shareholders	292
Chapter 9. Securities issued by the company		299
9.1.	Legal basis and security concept	299
9.2.	Share certificates	299
9.3.	Securities without nominal value	301
9.4.	Securities carrying special rights	304
9.5.	Stock exchange listing of shares	306
9.6.	Public offers of securities without stock exchange listing . .	313
9.7.	Stock exchange law requirements governing securities	315
Chapter 10. The internal regulation of the company		319
10.1.	Articles of association and memorandum of association . . .	319
10.2.	Rules of procedure or instructions for bodies of management or supervision	328
10.3.	Employment contracts	330
10.4.	Shareholder agreements	332
Chapter 11. The powers of the company bodies		335
11.1.	Power distribution in general	335
11.2.	General meeting powers in relation to the rest of the company bodies	337
11.3.	Meetings of debenture owners	344
11.4.	The influence of the general meeting and others on the composition of the bodies of management and supervision	347
11.5.	The mutual delimitation of competence of the bodies of management and supervision	349
11.5.1.	Applicable law	349
11.5.2.	Proposed law (the Structural Directive)	350

Chapter 12. The general meeting	355
12.1. Competence	355
12.2. Ordinary/extraordinary	356
12.3. Convening	356
12.4. Right to attend, proxies	360
12.5. The shareholders' decision basis	362
12.6. The binding character of the agenda, list of participants ...	364
12.7. Voting right	365
12.7.1. Ordinary rules	365
12.7.2. Share classes of differing voting rights	366
12.7.3. Voting limitations (voting ceilings)	370
12.8. Incapacity	371
12.9. Majority rules	372
12.10. Minutes	378
12.11. Invalidation of decisions	379
12.12. General meeting in cyberspace?	384

Chapter 13. Board and management internally:

Election, decisions etc.	387
13.1. Election and removal	387
13.2. Executive management and supervision	391
13.3. Information and disclosure of documents	394
13.4. Remuneration, side-jobs	395
13.5. Decisions of particular scope	397
13.6. Incapacity	398
13.7. Equality between the members of the individual boards ...	402
13.8. Duty of loyalty and secrecy	404
13.9. Majority, quorum, absence	405
13.10. Outsourcing of management functions: management contracts	408

Chapter 14. Board and management externally:

Representation, liability etc.	411
14.1. The power to bind the company	411
14.2. The liability of the body members	420
14.3. Insider dealing	429

Chapter 15. Company and shareholder: Takeover, groups etc. . .	437
15.1. List of shareholders (register of shareholders)	437
15.2. Public access to know the identity of major shareholders in the company	438
15.3. The company's duty to treat the shareholders equally	443
15.4. Majority take-over via a bid to the company's shareholders	444
15.5. Group relationships and issues	450
15.5.1. Introduction	450
15.5.2. Judge-made group law	452
15.5.3. A Community law group definition	456
15.5.4. Directive-made group law	460
15.5.5. A wider perspective	463
Chapter 16. Company and employee	465
16.1. European Works Councils	465
16.2. Company and Group representation: Actual co-decision power	468
16.3. Employee shares, etc.	473
16.4. Business transfer, outsourcing and tender invitations	475
16.5. Company insolvency: Securing employee pay	486
Chapter 17. The company and the authorities	493
17.1. National authorities	493
17.2. Community law authorities	499
Chapter 18. Accounts and Audit	507
18.1. Annual Accounts	507
18.1.1. General	507
18.1.2. Balance sheet	516
18.1.3. Profit and loss account	528
18.1.4. Notes	531
18.1.5. Annual report	534
18.1.10. Publication	535
18.2. Six-Months reports in listed companies	537

18.3.	Consolidated accounts	541
18.3.1.	The group concept	542
18.3.2.	Exclusion of individual undertakings	548
18.3.3.	Contents of consolidated accounts	550
18.4.	Audit, auditors and audit committees	554
18.5.	Annual accounts and tax accounts: Tax governed annual accounts (Massgeblichkeit)	560
18.6.	The future European accounts: value-based accounts	560
18.7.	Environmental issues and environmental accounts	562
18.8.	Social accounts	564
 Chapter 19. Merger and Division		565
19.1.	The Merger Concept	565
19.2.	Merger between companies in the same state	566
19.3.	Merger between companies in different states	580
19.4.	Division	586
19.5.	Community law merger control	593
19.5.1.	The background of the merger control rules	593
19.5.2.	Result: A regulation on merger control	595
19.5.3.	Four basic principles	597
19.5.4.	Amounts (threshold values)	597
19.5.5.	The wide-reaching group concept of the regulation	598
19.5.6.	Undertakings of registered (group) offices outside the EU also comprised	599
19.5.7.	The wide-reaching "merger" concept of the Regulation	600
19.5.8.	Establishment of collective dominance (oligopoly) is also comprised	601
19.5.9.	Establishment of common holding company also comprised	602
19.5.10.	Reference from and to the Commission (German clause, Dutch clause)	602
19.5.11.	Notification to the Commission	604
19.5.12.	Is the merger compatible with the common market?	604
19.5.13.	The merger is not to be carried out pending the deliberation of the case	605

19.5.14. Considerations included in the Commission's evaluation	606
19.5.15. Flat refusal – or approval on certain terms?	607
19.5.16. The contents of terms and their enforcement	609
19.5.17. Judicial review of the Commission's decisions	611
19.5.18. No access to sue for minority shareholders	612
Chapter 20. Voluntary dissolution: Liquidation	615
20.1. Liquidation concept and the need for regulation	615
20.2. Liquidation decision	616
20.3. Liquidators	618
20.4. The liquidation procedure	621
Chapter 21. Mandatory dissolution: Bankruptcy, etc.	627
21.1. Mandatory dissolution in company law	627
21.2. Bankruptcy etc.	630
21.3. International insolvency law	631
21.4. Reconstruction	634
21.4.1. Lateral insolvency and company law measures ...	634
21.4.2. A Newco holding solution	635
21.4.3. A Newco-subsiary solution	636
21.4.4. A Newco-sister solution	637
21.4.5. Common requirements in respect of Newco solutions: arms' length terms	639