

A
333436

Identity and Discursive Practices

Spain and Latin America

Francisco Domínguez (Ed.)

PETER LANG

Bern · Berlin · Bruxelles · Frankfurt am Main · New York · Wien

Contents

Acknowledgements.....	5
Introduction .....	9
Part One: Political Economy
Francisco Domínguez
Latin America, Spain, the European Union and the United States .....	19
Marco Fonseca
Words of Change: The Guatemalan Peace Process and the International Community .....	61
Lila Haines
Spanish Investment in Cuba: A Second Coming .....	107
Part Two: Spanish-Latin American Identities
Clare Mar-Molinero
Conflicting and Competing Identities: Language and Nationalism in the Spanish-speaking World .....	123
Arnd Schneider
Discourses of Ethnic Distinctions in Contemporary Argentina .....	135
Geoffrey Kantaris
The Repressed Signifier: The Cinema of Alejandro Agresti and Eliseo Subiela .....	157
Part Three: Literary and Discursive Practices
George Lambie
The Effect of the Spanish Civil War on the Politics and Poetry of César Vallejo .....	177

Márcia Hoppe Navarro
The Search for Identity in Latin American Women's Novels of the Eighties .....	209
Linda Craig
Decolonising the Mind: Rosario Ferré's "Cuando las mujeres quieren a los hombres" .....	235
 Part Four: Gender and Masculinity
Alberto Mira
Constructions of Masculinity in the Narratives of Mundonovismo .....	251
David Vilaseca
Enjoy Your Symptoms! AIDS as a Source of 'Enjoyment' in Reinaldo Arenas's "Antes que anochezca" .....	267
Stephen Wilkinson
Behind the Screen and into the Closet: Reading Homosexuality in the Cuban Revolution through "Conducta impropia", "Antes que anochezca", and "Fresa y chocolate" .....	283
Bibliography .....	307
About the Authors .....	325