Contents

Table of Cases xi
List of Abbreviations xiii

Introduction 1

1. The British Constitution and Military Action 7
   1. Introduction 7
   2. The Sovereign's Army 8
   3. Democracy and War 12
   4. The Modern Constitution and Military Action 19
   5. War Before the Courts 22
   6. The War Cabinet 25
   7. Conclusions 30

2. Lawbreaker or Lawmaker? Britain and International Law on the Use of Force 32
   1. Introduction 32
   2. The Just War 33
   3. Westphalian Order 33
   4. Armed Reprisals 35
   5. Self-Defence 36
   6. Humanitarian Intervention 37
   7. The Inter-War Period 38
   8. UN Order 39
   9. The Cold War 42
  10. The UK and the Use of Force in the Cold War 45
     10.1 The Corfu Channel 1946 45
     10.2 The Suez Crisis 1956 49
  11. Post-Cold War and Post-9/11 53
  12. Conclusion 56

3. Between Idealism and Realism: Britain, the UN, and NATO 58
   1. Introduction 58
   2. Britain and the Creation of the UN 58
   3. Britain and the Veto 63
Contents

4. Britain, the UN, and Collective Security 68
5. Britain and the Founding of NATO 74
6. Britain and the Evolution of NATO 77
7. Conclusion 80

4. From Korea to Kuwait: Britain and Coalitions of the Willing 82
   1. Introduction 82
   2. Coalitions of the Willing in International Law 82
   3. Collective Security and Collective Defence 85
   4. The Failure of the UN Charter Scheme 87
   5. The Constitutionality of Coalitions 89
   6. The International Legal Basis of the Military Operations in Korea and Iraq 90
   7. The British Attitude in the UN 92
   8. Britain and the Korean War 96
   9. Britain and Iraq's invasion of Kuwait 104
   10. Conclusion 111

5. A Role for Europe: Britain and the EU 113
   1. Introduction 113
   2. Part of the Federal Dream 114
   3. The Separation of Security 116
   4. The Birth of an Economic Giant 117
   5. The Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP) 119
   6. The EU as a Regional Arrangement 120
   7. Post-War Parliamentary Debates 124
   8. Maastricht Debates and Beyond 128
   9. Conclusion 134

6. What Peace? British Blue Helmets in Bosnia 135
   1. Introduction 135
   2. From Peacekeeping to Peace Operations 135
   3. Cold War Peacekeeping 137
   4. Post-Cold War Peacekeeping 138
   5. A Failure to Protect: UNPROFOR 1992–5 140
   6. The Nature of the Bosnian Conflict 142
   7. Britain and UNPROFOR 146
   8. Stronger Peacekeeping 153
   9. Conclusion: Bosnia Post-Dayton 157
Contents

7. Defending the Nation: the Falklands
- 1. Introduction 160
- 2. The Modern Right of Self-Defence 160
- 3. Defensive Action against Threats 163
- 4. Limitations on the Right of Self-Defence 168
- 5. Modern Reprisals 171
- 6. The Falklands War 173
- 7. Conclusion 182

8. Helping a Friend in Afghanistan
- 1. Introduction 184
- 2. Pre-Emptive Self-Defence 184
- 3. An Era of Anglo-American Military Expeditions 188
- 5. The Battle for Helmand 200
- 6. Conclusion 204

9. Bombing in the Name of Humanity: the RAF over Kosovo
- 1. Introduction 207
- 2. A Controversial Doctrine 207
- 3. Kosovo—the Crystallization of a Customary Right? 211
- 5. Regional Autonomy? 223
- 6. Britain and the Bombing Campaign 225
- 7. Democratic Accountability 232
- 8. Conclusion: the Future of Humanitarian Intervention 235

10. The Road to Basra
- 1. Introduction 238
- 2. The Security Council: More Than a Meeting Place 238
- 3. The Security Council and the Invasion of Iraq 242
- 4. Political Debate over the Legality of the Invasion 252
- 5. Post-Invasion Political Debate and Inquiry 259
- 6. The Security Council and Post-Invasion Iraq 264
- 7. Conclusion 267