

---

Routledge Handbook of Law and Terrorism

Edited by Genevieve Lennon and Clive Walker

Contents

---

Table of abbreviations	viii
Contributors	ix
Preface, David Anderson QC	xix
1 Introduction Genevieve Lennon and Clive Walker	1
PART I
The boundaries and strategies of national counter-terrorism laws	17
2 Terrorism as a legal concept Ben Saul	19
3 Counter-terrorism, emergency, and national laws Mariona Llobet-Angli and Aniceto Masferrer	38
4 What's in a word? War, law and counter-terrorism Laurie R Blank	52
5 The migration and derivation of counter-terrorism Kent Roach	68
6 The interaction of terrorism laws with human rights Federico Fabbrini	85
7 Terrorism laws and constitutional accountability John Ip	99
8 Terrorism laws and legal accountability Brice Dickson	116

PART II

The pursuit of terrorists through national criminal justice process and executive measures	131
9 Surveillance powers and the generation of intelligence within the law Simon McKay and Jon Moran	133
10 Dataveillance and terrorism: swamps, haystacks and the eye of providence Stuart Macdonald	147
11 Detention and interrogation in law and war Stephen J Vladeck and Clive Walker	163
12 Counter-terrorism policing and security arrangements Saskia Hufnagel	179
13 Precursor crimes of terrorism Manuel Cancio Meliá and Anneke Petzsche	194
14 The trial of terrorism: national security courts and beyond Fionnuala Ní Aoláin and Oren Gross	206
15 Executive measures against the liberties of terrorism suspects Mordechai Kremnitzer and Lina Saba-Habesch	222
16 The global system of counter-terrorist finance: what has it achieved; what can it achieve? Peter Sproat	237
17 Aliens and counter-terrorism Elsbeth Guild	251
18 The handling and disclosure of sensitive intelligence: closed material procedures and constitutional change in the 'Five Eyes' nations David Jenkins	266
19 The victims of terrorism Ilaria Bottiglieri, Lyal S Sunga, and Clive Walker	282
20 Evidence of the impact of counter-terrorism legislation Tim Legrand, Simon Bronitt, and Mark Stewart	297

PART III
Protective security	313
21 Homeland security	315
Amos Guiora, Genevieve Lennon, and Clive Walker
22 Security inspections in the US and UK: suspicionless counter-terrorist stop and search	334
Genevieve Lennon
23 Securing the transport system	349
Steve Swain
24 State development of incapacitating chemical agent weapons: implications including potential terrorist misuse	365
Michael Crowley and Malcolm Dando
PART IV
Preventive measures	381
25 'Prevent' policies and laws: a comparative survey of the UK, Malaysia, and Pakistan	383
Abdul Razak, Javaid Rehman, and Joshua Skoczylis
26 The myth of the 'securitised Muslim community': the social impact of post-9/11 counter-terrorist law and policy in the west	400
Steven Greer
27 Countering terrorism via the internet	416
Maura Conway and Clive Walker
28 Manifestations of extremism	432
Fergal Davis and Clive Walker
29 The penology of terrorism	447
Catherine Appleton and Clive Walker
30 Conclusion	463
Genevieve Lennon and Clive Walker
Bibliography	468
Index	476