

A 341541

United Nations-sponsored world conferences: Focus on impact and follow-up

Edited by Michael G. Schechter

United Nations
University Press

TOKYO • NEW YORK • PARIS

Contents

Tables and figures	vii
Acknowledgements.....	ix
Editor's introduction	xi
Part One Conferences	1
1. UN-sponsored world conferences in the 1990s	3
Michael G. Schechter
2. Implementing global goals for children: Lessons from UNICEF experience	10
Richard Jolly
3. The United Nations World Conference on Human Rights: Evaluation, monitoring, and review	29
Clarence J. Dias
Part Two The Beijing and Rio conference processes	63
4. Effectiveness of the Beijing Conference in fostering compliance with international law regarding women.....	65
Rebecca J. Cook

5. Development, implementation, and effectiveness of the CBD process	85
Thomas Yongo
6. The United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change: Implementation and compliance.....	122
Jo Elizabeth Butler and Aniket Ghai
Part Three Non-state actors and conference follow-up and implementation.....	167
7. From consensus-building to implementation: The follow-up to the UN global conferences of the 1990s.....	169
Masumi Ono
8. Making meaningful UN-sponsored world conferences of the 1990s: NGOs to the rescue?	184
Michael G. Schechter
9. Conclusions	218
Michael G. Schechter
Appendix A Chronology of conference-related events	223
Debbi Schaubman
Appendix B From PrepCom to follow-up: Researching the United Nations conferences of the 1990s.....	233
Debbi Schaubman
Acronyms and abbreviations.....	276
Contributors	280
Index	283